

or six, and Am Jan between three & four, at the time they went to live with him. For some two or three years past, the boy Rhodon has been able to render considerable service, and his service has probably been equivalent to his maintenance.

The girls have not been able to render any special assistance in his family. It is, however, probable, that for the last four or five years, they may be supposed on an average to have earned their support. I have concluded, upon the whole, that the sum allowed for Boarding is a very reasonable and moderate one.

James D. Logan
Special Commissioner

Filed Returned by Com Logan at the August Term ¹⁸⁴⁵ of the Circuit Court of Superior Court of Land and Chancery, and continued for Exception, and at the March Term ¹⁸⁵² of the Circuit Court of Roanoke, there being no exception taken, the same is confirmed, and ordered to be recorded.
