

by me to my sons Henry and John, and the lands or any portion of them be left to my said two sons, the loss shall fall equally upon all my children.

I hereby appoint my sons Henry and John the Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

Witness my hand and seal this twelfth day of September, in the year, One Thousand Eight Hundred & Seventy.

Witness

J. Boon

Wm. McCauley

John ^{his} Garst ^{seal} _{mark}

At Roanoke Circuit Court, July Term 1876.

The last Will and Testament of John Garst, Sen., deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Jubilee Boon and William McCauley subscribing witnesses thereto and is thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court

Teste

Wm. McCauley, Clerk

Anderson Robtson. I Anderson Robtson, of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, but being in full health, do make this my last Will and Testament.

I give and bequeath to my wife Nancy J. Robtson the whole of my estate both real and personal during her life term provided however that enough of the personal property is to be sold sufficient to pay all my just debts and burial expenses. And after the death of my wife I desire every thing both real and personal to be divided among my children I desire every thing to remain as it now is so far as it can be done.

I appoint my friend and neighbor Lewis Arthur, Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand this 20th day of March in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy Six.

Witness

J. Woodrum

Lewis H. Kirkwood

Anderson ^{his} Robtson _{mark}

At Roanoke Circuit Court, April Term 1876.

The last Will and Testament of Anderson Robtson deceased, was this produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Jordan Woodrum and Lewis H. Kirkwood, subscribing witnesses thereto and is ordered to be recorded.

A Copy from the records of Court.

Teste Wm. McCauley, Clerk

Jacob C. Miller. I, Jacob C. Miller, of the town of Salem, County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of sound mind, do make the following as and for my last will and testament.

1st - I desire to record my full confidence in the Blessed Redeemer, in to whose hands I commit myself and all that are dear to me, and this, whether my days be many or few.

2nd - In the event of my death, it is my will, that my very dear wife, Jennie S. Miller, shall take and hold in fee simple, all that I possess, whether the same be real property, personal property, stocks or choses in action; subject of course to the payment of any just debts owing by me.

3rd - I appoint my said wife the Executrix of this will, and I direct, that in qualifying as such, no security be required of her.

4th - If my said wife should not survive me, then this will shall be null and void.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 5th day of August 1880.

Jacob C. Miller

2
The foregoing writing was signed by Jacob C. Miller in our presence; and at his request, we attest the same by our signatures, in his presence, and in the presence of each other.

Peter Shirey
S. B. Simmons.

At Roanoke Circuit Court, October Term 1850.

The last Will and Testament of Jacob C. Miller deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Peter Shirey and Sparrell S. Simmons subscribing witnesses thereto and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Sub.

Wm. McCauley, Clerk.

Elizabeth Herty. In the name of God Amen. I Elizabeth Herty of Roanoke County and State of Virginia, being old and infirm, but of sound and perfect mind and memory and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof do make and appoint this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following to wit: First and principally I commit my soul to God, in humble hopes of its future happiness and my body to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial. To wit: I will and bequeath unto the present heirs of John W. Kittinger, all of my estate both real and personal whatsoever there may be left at my death after my funeral and burial expenses is paid. Said estate shall be equally divided amongst said heirs at the time or after my death. And it is further provided that said heirs take care of me during my natural life with the necessary cares I may need.

And truly I do appoint David Kittinger sole Executor of this my last will and Testament, ratifying and confirming this to be my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand - seal this thirteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy two.

Signed sealed & acknowledged in presence of

Elijah Doag

George Doag

J. W. Kittinger

Elizabeth Herty
her mark

At Roanoke Circuit Court, April Term 1852

The last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Herty deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Elijah Doag, George Doag and John W. Kittinger subscribing witnesses thereto and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Wm. McCauley, Clerk

Allen Bradley In the name of God Amen - I Allen Bradley, being of sound mind, and knowing the uncertainty of human life, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament.

First, I desire that after my death, my remains be decently interred - and that all my just debts, which I then may owe be paid out of the first monies, which may come to the hands of my Executors hereinafter named.

Second, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Hester P. Bradley, all my estate, of what kind or character same be - real and personal, which I now own or may own at at the time of my death, left after the payment of my just debts.

Third, In the event my wife Hester P. Bradley should die before me, then the property, I give to her - I give and bequeath to her