

James Campbell. I, James Campbell, of the County of Roanoke, and State of Virginia, considering the uncertainty of this life and being of sound mind and memory, but in feeble health, do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as following.

First. I want my house and lot, household and kitchen furniture sold on the first day of January 1875, or as soon thereafter as possible for cash, or on terms if my Executor thinks best; out of said sales he will pay all of my just debts and the balance, after paying to my daughter Lucy Jefferson five dollars, will be equally divided between my sister Hannah Henderson, Roger M. Bean & Martha Jones.

2^d. My beloved sister Hannah Henderson is indebted to me (amount unknown) but can be accounted by papers in the Clerk's Office of this County, which I let her will be allowed two years more time to pay the same, without interest from this date, but at the expiration of which time if not paid. My Executor will enforce a deed of trust, to be found in the office of this County, when this amount is collected. I want it divided equally between my sister Hannah Henderson, R. M. Bean & Martha Jones.

3^d. I leave to James M. G. Hunt my Executor without security.
In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 13th day of June 1874.

James ^{his} Campbell made

This above instrument was acknowledged by James Campbell in the presence of each of us, and was at the same time declared by him to be his last Will and Testament, and we at his request signed our names hereto as attesting witnesses.

Chas. A. Franklin
W. L. Hartwell

At Roanoke County Court, July Term 1874.

The last Will and Testament of James Campbell deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Charles A. Franklin and W. L. Hartwell subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

Teste

Wm. McCauley, Clerk.

Elizabeth Evans. Know all Men by these Presents that I Elizabeth Evans of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

And as to my worldly estate, and all the property, real, personal, or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death, I devise, bequeath, and dispose thereof in the manner following, to wit:

My will is, that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall, by my executor hereinafter named be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by him be found convenient.

I devise and bequeath to George Painter and my beloved daughter Catherine Conn his wife their heirs, executors, and administrators forever all my real and personal estate, and all the profits that have accrued from the Will and Testament during the time the said George Painter has lived upon the place, and all the debts due the estate, except the legacies hereinafter mentioned.

I devise and bequeath to my nephew Giles J. Thomas as trustee for my beloved daughter Mary J. Carper, Eight Hundred Dollars as a legacy to be paid by my executor out of my estate for her sole and separate use and benefit, and the benefit of her children, one half portion of said legacy to be paid in one year after my death, the other half portion in two years after my death. I also devise and bequeath to my said nephew Giles J. Thomas as trustee for my beloved daughter the said Mary J. Carper one bed and bedding for the said bed, one set of chairs, and one Table for her sole and separate use and benefit, and the benefit of her children, Caswell C. Carper husband of the said Mary J. Carper is not to have any portion of said legacies but they are for her sole and separate use and benefit and the benefit of her children.

And lastly I do nominate and appoint the said George Painter to be the executor of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof, I the said Elizabeth Evans have to this my last will and testament subscribed my name and affixed my seal this Fourteenth day of December in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty seven.

Elizabeth Evans

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said Elizabeth Evans, as and for her last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Wm. Brand
George W. Lewis

At Roanoke County Court, October Term 1874.

The last Will and Testament of Mrs Elizabeth Evans deceased was this day produced in Court and proved by the oaths of William W. Brand and George W. Lewis subscribing witnesses thereto and is therefore ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court Teste Wm. McCauley, Clerk.