

oaths of A.P. Staples and S.D. Ferguson the subscribing witnesses thereto, the said paper writing entitled "Memorandum for Robert E. Scott my Attorney" not appearing to be signed by the said George P. Tayloe, it is ordered by the Court that said paper writing dated the 23rd June 1896 purporting to be the last will and testament of said George P. Tayloe be recorded as and for the true last will and testament of the said George P. Tayloe deceased, and it is considered by the Court that said paper writing entitled "Memorandum for Robert E. Scott my Attorney" is not a testamentary paper and the same is rejected as not forming a part of the last will and testament of said George P. Tayloe deceased.

At-Roanoke County Court-September Term 1897.

The last-Will and Testament- of James C. Deyere, deceased, was this day produced in Court- and proved according to law, by the oaths of Henry B. Blair and Samuel Corrick, who depose that- they are well acquainted with the testator's hand- writing, and verily believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to- be wholly written by the testator's own hand. Whereupon, the said writing, is ordered to be recorded as the true last-Will and Testament- of the said James C. Deyere, deceased.
