

Signed published and declared by John H. Goode as and for his last will in the presence of us, who in his presence at his request, and in the presence of another have herewith subscribed our names as witnesses.

Jas. S. Persinger
O. R. Stearnes.

At Roanoke County Court June Term 1896.

The last Will and Testament of John H. Goode, deceased, was this day produced in Court, and proved according to law, by the oaths of O. R. Stearnes and J. S. Persinger the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste:

W. Griffin, Clerk.

John Loom. I, John Loom of Roanoke County State of Virginia being of sound and disposing mind and memory make this my last will and Testament as follows.

First it is my will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Second I will to my dear wife Sarah Loom, all the tract of land I reside on containing a bout 230 acres so long as she may live, and after her death I give to my son Thomas Jefferson one child's part equally in value with the rest of my children in said tract to be cut off of the upper end of said tract, to hold so long as he may live and after his death to go to his children, by his first wife, and if any them should die without heirs before he dies to go to them that is living, and it is my will that the rest of said tract of land be divided between the rest of my children, or sold and the proceeds divided as they may desire and it is my will that my wife have all the household and kitchen furniture as long as she may live and it is my will that all my stock and farming implements be sold as soon after my decease practicable my wife to get one third of of the proceeds rest to be equally divided among my children.

and it is my will that any money or Bank Stock that I may have at my decease be equally divided between my children after my wife gets one third.

In witness whereof I the said Testator have thereto set my hand and seal on this the 16th day of April 1895.

John Loom

Signed sealed published and declared by the Testator as and for his last Will and Testament in presence of us who in his presence at his request and in the presence of each other have ~~unt~~ subscribed our names as witnesses.

Charles W. Bowles

Lacy Greenwood

James E. Day

At Roanoke County Court July 23rd. 1896.

The last Will and Testament of John Coon deceased, was this day produced in Court and partly proved according to law, by the oath of James E. Day, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and continued till the 5th day of this term for further proof.

At Roanoke County Court July 24th. 1896.

The last will and Testament of John Coon, deceased, was this day again produced in Court and fully proved according to law, by the oaths of Charles W. Bowles and Lacy Greenwood, the remaining subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Test: H. Griffin, Clerk.

Lewis Newman In the name of God Amen

I, Lewis Newman of the County of Roanoke and State of Va., knowing the brevity of life and being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and ordain this my last will and Testament.

1. I direct that my burial and funeral expenses be paid by my executor, ^{out} of the first money that comes in his hands.

2. I direct that all of my just debts be paid as soon after my demise as may be convenient by my Executor.

3. I direct that all of my personal and real estate after my just debts are paid, be kept together until my youngest child becomes twenty one year of age, except five acres more less that my son Deval had partly bargained for if he still wants the land for the sum of One hundred & fifty Dollars my Executor to receive the same and put it in interest untill the rest of the land be sold.

4. I further direct that my wife Ruth Newman shall have choice of one acre of land or twenty five Dollars in money ^{whichever}