

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 15th March 1859
Test. Lucy Y. O'Brien (S)

At Roanoke February Court 1864

The last Will & Testament of Lucy Oliver deceased was this day produced in Court, as it appearing that William Crump for and Alice G Crump the subscribing witnesses thereto are in the County of Alameda and unable to attend the Court, it is ordered that a Commissioner to take the depositions in regard according to the said Will, and directed to E. L. Watson or any person authorized by law to take depositions in other cases in Alameda County.

And at Roanoke March Court 1864

The last will & Testament of William G. Christ died may again produced in Court, together with the deposition of Mr.
Crump & Mr. Allen G. Crump subscribing & attesting thereto, before a Justice of the Peace elected at the last Term.

And the said deponent having been read, and it appearing therefrom that Mr. Allen G. Camp, owing to sickness, is unable to attend the Court, and that his said depositions is in due and legal form, the said Court was found in part of his according to law, and continued for further proof as to W^m Camp, it not appearing that he is prevented on account of sickness, age, or infirmity from attending the Court.

And at Leasda April 1864

The last Will & Testament of Mr. Henry Y. Davis dated over, this day again produced in Court and further proved according to law by the oath of S. W. Croup jr, a subscribing witness thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the library of Guy

Part 1. February 1862

Stephen H. Williamson
Prof. and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and ordain this my Last Will & Testament, hereby revoking all others & conform with the Clergy Office made to me.

The Chief Office made by me Kauaike County, Dec 1st. After the payment of all my just debts, and burial and the day of expenses, I gave and leguall to my wife Ann M. Marshall under 66; the widow of Robert Marshall deceased my tract of land lying in Kauaike County, Kauaike County, and here down and fully paid fully stamped your name or his, and opening the land of Captain Barry willed and Jack Barry, and Robert Barry. I also gave the leguall to my heirs forever.

Rowe's Society, Nov 1st. After the payment of all my just debts, and bearing up the day of expenses, I gave out legumate to my brother Asa W. Marshall under the order of Rowell Parham, leaving my tract of land lying in and having been the society of Rowell's and many can have done and they found tally stamped your name, or his, and upon the order of Asa W. Marshall, Bury inclosed and packed up, and would that I also gave it legumate to my brother.

only stamped over now, as, and upon the walled and Jack Snow, and would that be possible.

the poverty

transmitted by David McKim Lane to Marshall all of my personal estate of whatever kind or description in my possession at the time of my death. It is my wish and desire that my executor hereafter in the fall of 1867 should sell such of my estate as he may think proper.

As Mr. May is to pay debts, and there only so much of the personal estate of Mrs. May, in Mr. May's fee, I have, and after the payment of such debts, I have justly and (absolutely) are free of any part of the same amount, that he retain the balance of the personal estate in his hands, and to pay the same to the said Mrs. May, or to her assigns, as he shall see fit.

John 3.^d I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint Capt. St.
Hatch my said executor to the say last will & testament of my said deceased son 19th day of September 1863 Witness my hand & seal the 19th day of September 1863
Stephen W. Williams
J. Williams
Perryman Meader

At Roanoke Septemr Court 1864^x

The last will and testament of Stephen H. Williamson, deceased, was this day produced in Court and put in to law by the oaths of Solomon Williamson and Jerrymon Pitt--er subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.
Attest from the records of Court 1846. Johnstone Clerk

John W. Cawley. I, John W. Cawley of the County of Henrico and State of Virginia being in full health, of sound mind and disposing memory, and being desirous to dispose of my little worldly estate that I may die peaceful in a part thereof as near as possible I am yet alive, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows viz - First, I hereby direct that my Executor (hereinafter named) shall pay all my just debts and funeral expenses secondly - I give and bequeath to my wife Susan W. Cawley all my real and personal estate which I possess in the State of Virginia to have and to hold during her life time, and at her death to be equally divided between her children viz: Maria, Calpurnia, Isabel, Virginia, Edward, Charles, Mary and Antoinette

Thirdly - I give and bequeath all my landed estate in the County of Cedar, State of Missouri, containing to the best of my recollection four hundred and eighty acres, if not confiscated by the United States Government, to my grandchildren, the children of my daughter Penelope Francis of the State of Illinois, and to my son James of California if living, if not to his children, and to my son John of Illinois if living, if not to his children, and to the children of my son David. This property I to be divided into four equal shares one of which is to be given to each living child, and each family of grand children named in the petition. The property ^{belonged} to and should have been distributed to these children several years ago, but circumstances prevented it.

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my son William McCauley executor of this my last will and Testament, vesting all power with him, and it is my wish that he perform the duties appertaining to the administration of this estate in Virginia
free of charge, but as regards the proper payment of the estate
in my hands for its administration to my ^{executor} son, my child legitimate and natural August 25th 1864

Witness my hand

James R. Harsh

Wm McCauley

Charles R. McCauley

John McCauley

W. R. Harsh, September Court 1864

The last will and Testament of John McCauley deceased on this day produced in Court and found according to law by the court of James R. Harsh, William McCauley, & Charles R. McCauley Subscribing Testimony. Charles R. McCauley, as a witness to be recorded at City from the records of Court

John McCauley

J. R. Harsh
[Seal]

I, J. R. Harsh of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, Clerk of said Court and Recorder (and this will exhibited being duly taken upon the duties that may devolve
in the Clerk's Office upon me as a witness in the testimony of my self for Roanoke County, make a deposition of such estate as I possess in the County of Roanoke the 1st day of September 1864, to wit: my wife and children October 1864. The last day of my last will and Testament, as I have been and have been duly stamped to pay all my just debts at my estate by selling parties remitted and they are, in and the other articles of Roanoke County, that legally committed by me, and are as follows:

First, I give and bequeath all my estate both real and personal to my daughter, W. R. Harsh of Roanoke in consequence of the high esteem in which I hold her, and the affection which she has borne me.

Secondly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my son
William McCauley executor of this my last will and Testament, vesting
all power with him, and it is my wish that he perform the duties appertaining to the administration of this estate in Virginia
free of charge, but as regards the proper payment of the estate
in my hands for its administration to my ^{executor} son, my child
legitimate and natural August 25th 1864

Thirdly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my son
William McCauley executor of this my last will and Testament, vesting
all power with him, and it is my wish that he perform the duties appertaining to the administration of this estate in Virginia
free of charge, but as regards the proper payment of the estate
in my hands for its administration to my ^{executor} son, my child
legitimate and natural August 25th 1864

J. R. Harsh

W. R. Harsh, September Court 1864

I, James R. Harsh of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, Clerk of said Court and Recorder (and this will exhibited being duly taken upon the duties that may devolve
in the Clerk's Office upon me as a witness in the testimony of my self for Roanoke County, make a deposition of such estate as I possess in the County of Roanoke the 1st day of September 1864, to wit: my wife and children October 1864. The last day of my last will and Testament, as I have been
and have been duly stamped to pay all my just debts at my estate by selling parties
remitted and they are, in and the other articles of Roanoke County, that
legally committed by me, and are as follows:

W. R. Harsh
[Seal]

This will exhibited in the Clerk's Office of Roanoke County Court the 1st day of October 1864 the same having been duly stamped, connected and the penalty remitted by J. R. Harsh Clerk of Court of the 1st day of October 1864.

W. R. Harsh

I, James R. Harsh of Roanoke Co. Va. Clerk of Court, do hereby certify that the last will and Testament of John McCauley deceased, as shown to me by the executor of the same, is the same as the one on file in the Clerk's Office of the Court of Roanoke County, and that the same is duly stamped and the penalty remitted by me, and that the same is the last will and Testament of the said John McCauley deceased.

First, I give and bequeath to my daughter Martha Harsh my right share of the same.

Second, I give and bequeath to my son Robert my right share of the same.

Third, I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Lavinia Harsh, daughter of Robert Harsh, my right share of the same.

Fourth, I give and bequeath to my son in law James R. Harsh, my right share of the same.

Fifth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Sixth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Seventh, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Eighth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Ninth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Tenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Eleventh, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Twelfth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Thirteenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Fourteenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Fifteenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Sixteenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Seventeenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Eighteenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Nineteenth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella
Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.

Twentieth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella Harsh, the article of furniture I received from my father.