

In the name of God Amen. — I John S. Evans of the County of Roanoke State of Virginia being of sound mind and disposing memory do make this Will exhibited this my last Will and testament in manner and form as follows.
 1st I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my ex-of Roanoke County, out of the first money coming into his hands after my decease. After and the 1st day of paying my just debts as above directed, I give and bequeath the residue of my Estate both real and personal that I may die possessed of, to my wife Mary Evans and my brother Madison D. Evans to be divided as follows viz. — My sister Mary Evans to have in the division of my property One thousand and three hundred and thirty three dollars and thirty three cents per cent, and the balance of one thousand dollars in favor of my sister Mary Evans on account of her kind attention to me while on a bed of affliction I hereby appoint and constitute my brother Madison D. Evans my Executor of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all other wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal Jan^y the 23^d 1862

In the presence of
 J. R. Evans
 Henry Hagg

John S. Evans (Seal)

At Roanoke October Court 1862

The last Will and Testament of John Evans deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Deftor B. Evans and Henry Hagg subscribing witnesses thereto and is ordered to be recorded.

A Copy from the records of Court
 Dated J. Johnston C.

Mr. E. B. Watts, I, Elizabeth Breckinridge Watts, of Roanoke County Virginia do make this my last will and testament. — Desiring in all respects to comply with and carry out the wishes of my late husband, Edward Watts as expressed in his last Will and testament, and being authorized and empowered by his said will, to make a final distribution of his Estate among our children, in execution of the power so conferred, I do hereby give and devise unto our five surviving children viz. William Watts, Ann D. Holcombe, Lillian G. Rivers, Allen M. Morris and Emma B. Carr, each, one fifth part of the estate of every kind possessed by the said Edward Watts at the time of his death, and also any profits or increase of the slave or any other property since his death, including any advancements made to any of our said children by my husband in his life time, or by myself since his death, subject however, as far as the share or interest of my daughter in the said Estate are concerned, to the trusts limitations and provisions herein after mentioned. In the said will of the said Edward Watts is the following clause viz: — "I, hereafter making any provision for any of my daughters, if my said wife should deem it prudent and proper to make such a settlement of it as may appear to them to be enjoyment."

he expresses his desire that none of his property should go to these out of his blood, Regarding these clauses in the said will as advisory, and approving such settlements upon our daughters as both prudent and proper, in order to effectuate this purpose, I do hereby appoint my son William Watts a trustee to hold all the estate and property of every kind to which any of my said daughters may be entitled under the will of the said Edward Watts deceased, or under the provisions of this will, or any advancement that I may hereafter make to any of my said daughters, for the sole and separate use and benefit of my said daughters respectively, for and during their lives, free from the marital right of the present or future husbands of any of them, and at the death of the said daughters respectively, to deliver, surrender and pay over to their respective descendants, living at the time of their death, the share of their respective parents, and if either of my said daughters should die without issue living at the time of her death then her share of the said property and estate is to go and be delivered and paid over to her brother and sister or their descendants, (the descendants in such case taking the share that their father or mother would have taken if alive) Should my son William decline to act as such trustee, or in case of his death, I desire that some suitable person, and agreeable to the parties concerned, shall be appointed as trustee in his place, by the judge of the Circuit Court of Roanoke County either in vacation or in Court as circumstances may require, I do hereby nominate and appoint my son William Watts my executor of this my last will and testament, and desire that my said executor be allowed to qualify as such without giving security, signed, published and declared this 17th day of April 1862
 Signed by the said Elizabeth B. Watts in our presence, present at the same time and subscribed by us in her presence
 Peter Saunders Jr.
 William D. Scruggs

Elizabeth B. Watts

At Roanoke September Court 1862

The last Will and Testament of Elizabeth B. Watts deceased was produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Peter Saunders Jr. and William D. Scruggs subscribing witnesses thereto and admitted to record

Dated

J. Johnston Clk.

In the name of God Amen

I, James Crawford Sr. of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia being of sound mind and disposing memory, and this Will exhibited this my last Will and testament as follows to wit: — First, I recommend my soul to God who gave it, trusting to a happy consummation through the merits of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. — Secondly, It is my desire after my decease, that I be buried in a decent and Christian like manner in the cemetery and all funeral expenses be paid as a debt due to the said cemetery.