Teste W. M. McAulley Clerk

John T. Davis. I make my last will in the following form and conditions, viz:

It is my wish for Camillus Christian to act as my Executor; and not to be required by the Court to give security; that he shall collect all debts due and pay all just claims against me; should there then be any money in hand to transfer it to the trustee hereinafter named.

I give and bequeath my whole estate both real and personal that I now possess or may hereafter acquire to Camillus Christian security not to be required of him; to be held by him in trust for the sole and separate use and benefit of my two daughters Mary Davis Christian, and Margaret C. Davis to be equally divided between them, the married portion should there be any, to be invested in productive real estate or some other safe investment which in his judgment may be most productive or afford my daughters the greatest comfort.

It is my wish that the said Camillus Christian trustee shall give my daughters if they desire it possession of the real estate with authority to collect the rents and the interest on any other securities he may hold for them to use in any way they may think proper for their sole and separate use. The same not to be liable for any debts contracted by any husband they or either of them may now have or may hereafter take. If the income from the estate of each of them should not be sufficient to support them and their families comfortably and economically; Camillus Christian shall if he thinks it necessary sell such portion as he may think best, and if the said should amount to more than is needed he shall invest the same as heretofore directed.

If the said Camillus Christian should think it to the interest of the trust fund he is authorized by having the consent of the said Mary Davis Christian and Margaret C. Davis to sell and convey any or all of my lands that are located in the country and invest the proceeds as previously directed. It is my wish that either of my daughters shall have the authority to will her portion of my estate or any part thereof to either or all of her children or grand child or children and if she have no descendants then to her sister or some descendant or descendants of her sister. If no sister or descendant living then to give it to any person or in any manner she may think proper.

In making such will my daughters shall have the right to attach such conditions to their bequests as they may think proper. If either or both of my daughters die leaving no will as heretofore provided for and having no descendant then her portion shall revert to her sister if living and if no sister living then to her sisters descendants.

If either one or both of my daughters die leaving no will and leaving a child or children and if their child should die before arriving at the age of twenty one year and leaving no child or children her or her portion of his or her mother's estate shall be equally divided between his or her brothers and sisters or their descendants.

If they should not have a descendant it shall revert to my estate and be held as heretofore provided. In the event of my not having a descendant it shall revert to the father of the child if he should then be living.

Given under my hand ^{and} seal this 18th day March 1882
