

the sum of Two Thousand Dollars to be paid him out of my estate. (provided my said son does not receive said sum from the estate of my deceased husband, Henry M. Garst, before my decease.) To equalize him with the rest of our children in advancements. In event the said Jonas should receive the said sum of Two Thousand dollars from my said husband's estate then it is my will and desire that a bond I hold against my brother Abraham Graybill for the sum of $45.00 and a bond against my brother G. H. Graybill for a like sum of $45.00, each bond being dated on the 17th day of September 1895, and payable on demand, shall be equally divided between my daughter Mary and my son Jonas. In the said event I also bequeath to my said son Jonas a black mare (State) and a good bed and bedding, which are included in my one interest in my one third of the balance of my deceased husband's personal estate, after payment of debts. I will and bequeath and the rest and residue of my property of whatsoever kind to all my children equally, share & share alike. It is my desire that such personal property I may leave at my decease shall be divided among my children and that there be no public sale of same. I nominate and appoint my son Marshal Garst the executor of this my last will and testament.

Witness my hand and seal this 18th day of October 1895.
Ann L. Garst ^{her} _{mark} (Seal)

Date

Jeremiah Garst.

Monroe Garst.

At Roanoke County Court, January Term, 1896.

The last Will and Testament of Ann L. Garst ^{deceased} this day produced in Court and proved according to law, by the oaths of Jeremiah Garst and Monroe Garst the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Date:

W. Griffin, Clerk.

Jas. W. Kittinger

In the name of God Amen.

I, John W. Kittinger of the County of Roanoke, State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but mindful of the approach of death, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following.

1st. I direct that as soon after my death as convenient and prudent that all my personal property be sold by my executor hereinafter named and out of the proceeds of such sale, I desire that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid; and the residue thereof, after charges of Administration, be distributed in the following manner.

One third of such residue to my dear wife Barbara, if she survive me, and the two thirds thereof, equally among my children named as follows, Daniel Kittinger, John W. Kittinger, Willie Meadows, Henry J. Kittinger, Charles F. Kittinger, James E. Kittinger and Louisa Poage

2nd It is my will and desire that, two years after my death, should I survive my said wife, and should she survive me, then, two years after the death of my beloved wife my real estate be sold by public sale on the usual terms of sale of lands, by my said Executor, and as the proceeds thereof are paid, distribute the same, among my children in the following way, to wit:

To Daniel Kittinger, John W. Kittinger, Willie Meadows, Henry J. Kittinger, Charles F. Kittinger, James E. Kittinger and Louisa Poage each an equal share thereof, except James E. Kittinger, to whom I have, heretofore, advanced the estimated sum of $200 and with which sum I desire he shall be charged in the distribution of the proceeds of my real estate.

3rd Should my said wife survive me I desire, that until her death she shall enjoy the use and occupancy of the mansion house in which we now live and all necessary out buildings and a full one third of all the income from my real estate and that she be allowed to purchase at the sale of my personal property, such articles as she may desire, at the appraised price thereof.

4th I appoint my son Daniel Kittinger my executor to sell my personal property, collect what may be due to my estate, sell my real estate and to collect and distribute the proceeds of my personal and real estate in the manner above directed and desired hereby giving him authority to make conveyances to purchase after all the purchase money has been paid. And I hereby revoke all other Wills by me, heretofore made.

Witness my hand and seal this 22^d day of April 1891.

J. W. Kittinger Seal

Signed by J. W. Kittinger in our presence and we each sign as witnesses in his presence and in the presence of each other.

Wm. McLanahan
J. C. Frantz

I, Wm. McLanahan, of the County of Roanoke, State of Va. have made & executed the foregoing to be my last Will & Testament, now I do hereby declare this to be a codicil to my said will and direct the same to be annexed thereto and taken as a part thereof, and I do hereby will and direct, that before any sale of my real estate by my said Executor, he shall receive and set apart three fourths of an acre of the said land in and around the family burying ground to be used & perpetuated as such burying ground.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 6th day of June 1892.

J. W. Kettinger Seal

Signed, sealed, published and declared by John W. Kettinger as and for a last will & testament in the presence of us, who in his presence, at his request and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses.

David A. Poage
James W. Turner

Second codicil

To the foregoing codicil I add that in granting and setting aside the family burying ground my executor shall include a right of way from the public road to the said burying ground.

Given under my hand this 10th day of Dec. 1895.

J. W. Kettinger

Signed in presence of

James W. Turner,
David A. Meador.

At Roanoke County Court, February Term, 1896.

The last Will and Testament of J. W. Kettinger, deceased, and the several codicils thereto was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oath of J. C. Frantz one of the original subscribing witnesses, David A. Poage, James W. Turner and David A. Meador the last three being subscribing witnesses to the said codicils who also made oath as to the acknowledgment of will by the testator and to his competency, and the handwriting of W. McManahan the other original subscribing witness (a non-resident), having been duly proved by the oath of W. L. McManing and J. C. Frantz, the said Will with the codicils thereto annexed, is ordered to be recorded.

Test:-

W. Griffin, Clerk.

C. Dublett

In the name of God amen I - C. Dublett of leave Spring Roanoke County Virginia being of sound mind do make and ordain this my last will and testament It is my desire to be decently buried and my burial expences to be paid by executors hereafter named as soon as can be done after my death And after paying all of my just debts I will and bequeath to my daughter Cora B. Airhart