McDonald
Belle L

In the name of God, Amen, I, Belle L. McDonald, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and feeling I have but a short time to live, do make this my last will and Testament.

I desire to be decently buried after my death by my husband, who is hereinafter named as my Executor, and that all my just debts be paid.

I give and bequeath unto my son Joseph Olin McDonald, the house and farm on which I now live, and which was conveyed to me by Alex Wilson, and all my personal estate, belonging to me. This devise is subject however to the support of my husband from the said land for and during his natural life, and to a home for him during his said life, as it is my wish and desire that he should live upon and occupy the said land, as a home and support for himself, free from any debts or obligations of his heretofore or hereafter contracted.

I appoint as my Executor my husband Edward McDonald as the Executor of this my last will and Testament, and request that the Court will not require security of him upon his bond.

I hereby revoke any and all wills by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the _____ day of April 1895
