

of grand children named in the petition. The property ^{belonged} to and should have been distributed to these children several years ago, but circumstances prevented it.

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my son William McCauley executor of this my last will and Testament, vesting all power with him to do, and it is my wish that he perform the duties appertaining to the administration of this estate in Virginia free of charge, but as regards the proper situation of the estate in my hands its administration to my ^{executor} ~~benefit~~ in my child legends and dated August 25th 1864

Witness my hand

James R. Harrell

Wm McCauley

Charles R. McCauley

John McCauley

At Roanoke, September Court 1864

The last will and Testament of John McCauley deceased was this day produced in Court and found according to law by the court of James R. Harrell, William McCauley, & Charles R. McCauley subscribing Testimony thereon, was a return to be recorded at City from the records of Court

Holmston Clerk

J. R. Burchett
[Seal Stamp]

I, J. R. Burchett of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and memory (and this will exhibited being sworn before me upon the duties that may devolve in the Clerk's Office upon me as a witness in the testimony of my State for Roanoke County, make a disposition of such estate as I possess in the County of Roanoke the 1st day of September 1864, to wit: my wife and children October 1864. The last day of my last will and Testament, in Roanoke and James, follows more having been found, I do hereby direct my executor herein after named duly charged to pay all my just debts at my estate by selling part of realized and then my estate in and the other balance of Roanoke my child legends committed by my executor to the Legates Legates. I give and bequeath all my estate both real and personal to my son William R. McCauley of Roanoke in consequence of the high esteem in which I hold him, and the affectionate friendship that has existed between us

Wm McCauley. I do hereby direct and desire that none of the other named estate shall ever be sold or sold contracted by him or his heirs or legates as Legates.

Finally, I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend John McCauley the executor of this my last will and Testament, fully authorizing and directing him to do all that will be required by the law in the testimony of my child legends and dated the first day of July 1864

J. R. Burchett

At Roanoke, September Court 1864

A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of James R. Burchett deceased was this day produced in Court and it was found by the court of J. R. Burchett and Wm McCauley that they were not acquainted with the handwriting of the said James R. Burchett, and that the said paper and signature thereon are wholly in the handwriting of the said James R.
Burchett, and therefore the said paper is admitted to be the last will and Testament

Witness my hand and seal of Court
John Holmston Clerk

Wm McCauley

J. R. Burchett

[Seal Stamp]

This will exhibited

in the Clerk's Office

of Roanoke County

on the 1st day of October 1864 the same

having been duly

stamped, connected

and the penalty

remitted by

J. R. Burchett on

Order of J. R. Burchett

on the 1st day 1864

Wm McCauley

J. R. Burchett

[Seal Stamp]

This will exhibited

in the Clerk's Office

of Roanoke County

on the 1st day of

October 1864 the same

having been duly

stamped, connected

and the penalty

remitted by

J. R. Burchett on

Order of J. R. Burchett

on the 1st day 1864

Wm McCauley

J. R. Burchett

I, Francis T. Harry of Roanoke Co. do hereby make this my last will and Testament making all other wills by me heretofore made

After the payment of my just debts, and funeral expenses,
I bequeath my property as follows to wit:

First, I give and bequeath to my daughter Martha Holmston my right share of the same

Second, I give and bequeath to my son Robert my right share of the same

Third, I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Lavinia

Harry, daughter of R. Harry, my right share of the same

Fourth, I give and bequeath to my son in law James F. Timmons, my right share of the same

Fifth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella Timmons, the article of furniture I received from my first husband, viz: my right share of the same

The last of my household and kitchen furniture I give and bequeath to my son

Robert, and my daughter Isabella to be equally divided between them

My stock and other property outside of my house, including my interest in all the ground on hand and the crop in the ground, I give and bequeath to my son in law James F. Timmons

I give to my daughter Susan McCauley two dollars in gold

I give to my daughter Magdalen Persinger two dollars in gold

I give to my daughter Lily R. Harrell two dollars in gold

I give to my daughter Lavinia Craft two dollars in gold

I give to my daughter Francis W. Ireland two dollars in gold

I give to my daughter Sarah M. Ireland two dollars in gold

I give to the heirs of my son William Harry two dollars in gold

I give to the heirs of my son James Harry two dollars in gold

Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Robert