Mrs Anne S. Holcombe. I see no reason why I should have any other Will than in my own handwriting, my children can prove if necessary that it is written by me. The property I have is of course for them, and my only wish is that it may be divided as I suggest. I appoint my friend J. Lawrence Campbell as my Executor as I feel now, he will be acceptable to all parties. I desire that as soon as possible after my death my farm in Roanoke shall be sold, & divided in six equal portions, to each of the boys a portion, and the rest equally divided between my two daughters Liddy & Allie. My daughter Lizzie is amply provided for by her husband & I am sure will be glad her sisters shall have her small portion. As for the little personal property I do possess of I leave to be divided among them, to Lizzie the silver pitcher and cups, to Willie the spoons & ladle marked Holcombe, to Edward & Cary the forks and spoons not marked, & to Liddy & Allie the Durn to Liddy my porcelain pictures & to Allie my China.

The rest of the articles to be given to the two girls Liddy & Allie.
