Elizabeth Shirey ^{her} X ^{mark} Shirey (seal)

At Roanoke County Court, August Term 1876.

A writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Shirey deceased was this day produced in Court and Littlebury Duncan, the surviving witness to the said writing, being sworn, deposed that the said Elizabeth Shirey acknowledged the same in his presence, and in the presence of Colin Bap, the other subscribing witness to the said writing, who is now dead, both of said witnesses being present at the same time, as and for her last Will and Testament; that he, the affiant, subscribed his name as a witness thereto in the presence of the said testator at her request; that the said testator was of sound sense and memory as far as he knew or believed; that the said Colin Bap subscribed his name as attesting witness in the affiant's presence and in the presence of the testator at her request. And William M. Barnitz, being sworn, deposed that he is well acquainted with the hand-writing of the said Colin Bap and that his attesting signature as a witness to said Will is his genuine signature. Wherefore the said writing is admitted to probate as and for the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Shirey deceased.

Colin Bass

At Roanoke County Court, August Term 1876.

A writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Colin Bass deceased, was, this day produced in Court by George G. Jenkins, the Executor therein named, and then being no subscribing witness therein, Rice D. Montague and James M. Johnston were sworn, and solemnly depose that they are well acquainted with the Testator's hand-writing and verily believe this said writing and the name therein subscribed, to be wholly written by the Testator's own hand.

And the said James M. Johnston further depose that he verily believes that the said Colin Bass, at the time of the execution of said writing was of disposing mind & memory.

Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true
last Will and Testament of the said Colin Bass deceased.
