Lucy J. Johnson. In the name of God, Amen. I Lucy J. Johnson of Salem, Roanoke County Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament as follows: I direct that my body be decently buried in a manner corresponding to my estate and situation in life, but with as little expense as may be consistently therewith. And as to such worldly estate as I may die seized and possessed of, I dispose of the same as follows: First, I give all of my real estate whatsoever situate and being in the town of Salem Roanoke County Va. with the appurtenances thereto belonging, unto my dear husband Moses E. Johnson in fee simple; and I give him also as his own forever all the rents which shall be due and owing to me at my death for the said real estate. I also give him in fee simple, all my household goods and furniture, plate, china ware, household linen, books, paintings, prints, together with all the utensils of every sort, and all the provisions and supplies of all kinds, in or belonging to my house in Salem Roanoke Co. Va where I now reside.

2^d Secondly, And as to all the residue of my estate, both real and personal which shall remain after the payment of the expenses of my funeral and my debts, I give, devise and bequeath unto my said husband Moses E. Johnson forever.

3^d Thirdly, I hereby revoke all previous wills and codicils hitherto made by me.

Witness my hand this 10 day of March 1898

Bell. I, George M. Bell, of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last-will and testament as follows: - I direct that all of my property both personal and real of which I may die seized or possessed be sold. I desire that my farm be sold altogether and on the installment-plan as follows one fourth to be paid cash and the remainder in three equal yearly payments. I want my executors to hold a sufficient sum of the proceeds of my property in hand for the maintenance of my wife Susan E. Bell, and the remainder of said proceeds I want to be equally divided amongst my four children viz., Luther A. Bell, Thos. M. Bell, Laura B. Lavender and Rosa A. Timull, and if anything remains of the sum above mentioned for the support of my wife at her death, it also is to be equally divided amongst said four children. I do hereby appoint my sons Luther A. Bell and Thos. M. Bell, to be the executors of this my last-will and testament. In witness whereof, I the said testator Geo. M. Bell, have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 31st day of May 1901.
