Margaret Williams. I, Margaret Williams of Roanoke County Virginia, do make the following as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Agatha Whaling, and to her children - those now living at & any that may be hereafter born to her, my whole Estate real and personal - that is to say my Dwelling House and other improvements with the lot of land attached thereto containing 8 1/2 acres - also all of my furniture of every kind, with the exceptions following, which I desire to dispose of as special bequests - viz to my grandson Horace L. Whaling my trunk lettered with the name of my daughter Virginia Williams - also my feather Bed, with mattress, Bedstead and bed clothing - my copy of Scott's Commentaries containing five volumes - and my Bonair

To my grandson John Thornton Whaling I give and bequeath my other Trunk - To my grandson George W. Whaling I give and bequeath my work table - and to my grandson Joshua B. Whaling I give another Table made of cherry.

I am indebted to the Estate of my late husband W. C. Williams about fifteen hundred and eighty dollars, which sum I hope and expect it will be in the power of my said daughter Agatha Whaling to pay - and thus she and her children will have and hold the estate herein bequeathed to them free of all claim or encumbrance.

I make the foregoing bequeath in favor of my daughter Agatha Whaling not because of any want of affection for my other children, but because I have but little to divide, and because she has taken care of me in my old age, which I am sure any of my other children would chearfully have done.

Witness my hand and seal the 5th day of August 1868.
