

Signed and published by Henry Butth, as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who in the presence of him, and in the presence of each other
have hereunto subscribed
our names, as witnesses

L. G. Reid
H. W. Hundley,
J. H. Henning.

Witnesses.

At Roanoke County Court August Term 1894.

The last Will and Testament of Henry Butth, deceased, was this day produced in Court, and proven according to law by the oaths of J. H. Henning and H. W. Hundley, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste:

H. Griffin, clerk.

Moorman.

Roanoke County State of Va. June 27. 1894.

I Mark B. Moorman humbly the uncertainty of life By the permission of Almighty God do feel it my duty to make my will and make such disposition of my Estate as I think best and satisfactory do call and bequeath to my eldest daughter Mary C. Henderson & her husband J. A. Henderson and their heirs one hundred acres of land on the lower end of the tract I now live on the tract I now live and the saw mill and its fixtures and all the dwelling on said land to include all dwelling and improvements the said Henderson to pay my son W. S.
Moorman one Hundred and fifty dollars within twelve months after my death and one Hundred in twelve months thereafter making five Hundred dollars & be theirs forever,

I now will to my second Lette Damewood to her and her husband John W. Damewood the residue of my Estate and all of my personal property including such as stock Wagon Jersey &c Farming implements &c. they are to keep my wife during life time she to have and all as hers during life time the said John W. Damewood to pay my son the sum of five Hundred $500 H. E. Moorman one hundred in twelve months after my death & one hundred and fifty in twelve months thereafter I now will my shot gun to my two sons them to cast lots we will get it Damewood is to have all of my tools including Blacksmith tools &c.

I now sign this as my last Will & Testament I also appoint my two coincidental my Executors of my Estate J. W. Dannewood and J. A. Henderson

Mark B. Monnaw Dead

Witnesses
J. R. Woods
O. W. Woods

At Roanoke County Court September Term, 1894.

The last Will and Testament of Mark B. Monnaw, deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law, by the oath of J. R. Woods, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and also by the oath of H. E. Monnaw, who deposed that he was well ^{writing} acquainted with the Testator's hand writing and verily believes the said, and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the Testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and Testament of the said Mark B. Monnaw, deceased.

A copy from the records of Court.

Date:

W. Griffin, Clerk.

Void —
See Circuit
Court Will Book.

In the name of God, Amen, I Lucinda Howbert of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia do make this my last will and Testament, as follows:
First. I desire that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be and to ~~that~~ ^{charge} my whole estate real and personal with the same.

Second. I give and bequeath to Mrs Jane Ryge who has been with me as long the following personal property belonging to me, selected by her, to-wit: one large and one small feather bed, one bedstead; one crazy quilt; one bureau; two counterpanes; two sets of pillows; four sheets; four comforts; two blankets; six new towels; a new shawl, a piece of bleached cloth for making pillow cases; and four hundred dollars in money, part of which is to be paid her out of the gold which I have.

Third. The residue of my estate of whatever description, real, personal, or mixed, I give bequeath and devise to my two nephews John Day Howbert and Hugh Demetrius Howbert to be equally divided between them.

In witness whereof I have to this my will set my hand this 19th day of September in the year of our Lord 1894, "one bedstead" interlined above before signing.

Lucinda Howbert by

Signed published and declared by

Lucie M. Beach

Lucinda Howbert as and for her last will, in the presence of us who in her presence and at her request, and in the presence of one another hereunto signed our names as witnesses thereto.

R. W. Fry
J. A. Glasgow Jr.