

Mark P. Sessler. I Mark P. Sessler of the County of Roanoke State of Virginia, being of sound mind and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, makes this my last will and testament. I give, devise, and bequeath my estate and property, real and personal, as follows. To wit. I give and bequeath all of my personal and real estate to my five (5) grand children, each one to have equal share after all of my burial and funeral expenses are paid; I want the land sold and the money divided: after paying expenses for selling the said land. I appoint John P. Sessler of the County of Potomac State of Virginia, Executor of this my last will. I further decree that Mili Trout shall have out of the proceeds of the land before any division be made, (to the first named 5 grand children,) One hundred Dollars, (100⁰⁰)

In witness whereof, I have signed and sealed and published and declared this instrument as my last will and Testament

Witness my hand and seal this 30th day of December, 1890.
 (Mark P. ^{his} Sessler Seal)
 mark

The said Mark P. Sessler, on said day signed and sealed and published and declared the same as and for his last will. And we, at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto written our names as subscribing witnesses.

J. St. Doosing
 James McKenry
 Lewis F. Trout

At Roanoke County Court, August Term, 1892:-

The last Will and Testament of Mark P. Sessler, deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved, according to law, by the oaths of J. St. Doosing, James McKenry and Lewis F. Trout, subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon ordered to be recorded, as the true last Will & Testament of Mark P. Sessler, deceased.
