

Item 7. I devise to the children of my deceased daughter, Mrs. Fannie V. Mangan, the house and lot adjoining that of Mrs. Haislip on same side of same Street, and the same already conveyed to Mrs. Fannie V. Mangan in her life time: - this to be accounted for at a valuation of $1500.00 in the division of my estate.

Item 8. I hereby direct my said executor to sell all or any part of my estate, real or personal, (except the property hereinbefore specifically devised and bequeathed as aforesaid,) and out of the proceeds thereof first, to pay any just debts which I may owe: - and the balance divide among my said four children and the children of my said deceased daughter, giving to each child one equal fifth part and to the children of ~~my~~ said deceased daughter one equal fifth part thereof: - or at his discretion, to divide in the manner aforesaid any of the unsold property; but no sale for such division, and no such division shall be made during the executor's life time unless by his own volition and by and with his approbation.

Item 9. Revoeking all previous wills that may have been made by me, I hereunto set my signature and seal, this the 19th day of May, 1892.

• At Brooke County Court, the 27th day of April, 1893:-

The last Will and Testament of Mrs. Martha J. Board, deceased, bearing date April 6th, 1893, was this day produced in Court, together with the codicil thereto, bearing date April 10th, 1893, whereupon F. H. Chalmers, one of the attesting witnesses to said Will and codicil, appeared in Court, and being first duly sworn, testified as follows:- That he was one of the attesting witnesses to the Will of Mrs. Martha J. Board, deceased, which paper is dated April 6th, 1893; that Mrs. Martha J. Board, the testatrix, signed the said paper in his presence, and in the presence of Joseph St. Hannah, the other attesting witness; that he signed the said paper as attesting witness, at the request of the said Mrs. Martha J. Board, in her presence and in the presence of Joseph St. Hannah, the other attesting witness; that ^{he} had known the said Mrs. Martha J. Board well for a good many years; that just before she executed the Will, he conversed with her; that, at the time she executed the Will, she was of sound mind and perfectly conscious; that the body of the Will is in the hand writing of Judge Henry E. Blair, except the name of the Executor, Henry E. Blair, whose name was inserted by the witness, before the execution of the Will by the testatrix, at her request, in her presence and in the presence of Joseph St. Hannah, the other attesting witness; that the will was left in the possession of the said Mrs. Martha J. Board; that he, the said F. H. Chalmers was also a witness to the codicil to the said Will, which codicil is dated April 10th, 1893; that the codicil was executed by the said Mrs. Martha J. Board, in his presence and in the presence of Joseph St. Hannah, the other attesting witness; that he signed the codicil as a witness, at the request of the said Mrs. Martha J.

Board, in her presence and in the presence of the other attesting witness, Joseph St. Hannah; that, at the time Mrs. Martha G. Board executed the said codicil, she was of sound mind and perfectly conscious, that the said codicil was left in the possession of the said Mrs. Martha G. Board; that the said Mrs. Martha G. Board died on the 15th day of April, 1893.

Joseph St. Hannah, the other attesting witness, also appeared in court, and being first duly sworn, testified as follows:—That he was one of the attesting witnesses to the Will of Mrs. Martha G. Board, which paper is dated April 6th, 1893; that Mrs. Martha G. Board, the testatrix, signed the said paper in his presence and in the presence of F. H. Chalmers, the other attesting witness; that he had known the said Mrs. Martha G. Board well, for a good many years; that just before she executed the Will, he conversed with her; that, at the time she executed the Will, she was of sound mind and perfectly conscious; that the body of the Will is in the hand writing of Judge Henry C. Blair, except the name of the Executor Henry C. Blair, whose name was inserted by F. H. Chalmers, the other attesting witness, before the execution of the Will by the testatrix, at her request, in her presence and in the presence of himself, the said Joseph St. Hannah; that the Will was left in the possession of the said Mrs. Martha G. Board; that he, the said Joseph St. Hannah, was also a witness to the codicil to the said Will; which codicil is dated April 10th, 1893; that the codicil was executed by the said Mrs. Martha G. Board in his presence and in the presence of F. H. Chalmers, the other attesting witness; that he signed the codicil as a witness, at the request of the said Mrs. Martha G. Board, in her presence and in the presence of the other attesting witness, F. H. Chalmers; that at the time the said Mrs. Martha G. Board executed the said codicil, she was of sound mind and perfectly conscious; that the said codicil was left in the possession of the said Mrs. Martha G. Board; that the said Mrs. Martha G. Board died on the 15th day of April, 1893.

Whereupon, the said paper-writing, dated April 6th, 1893, and said codicil, dated April 10th, 1893, are ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said Mrs. Martha G. Board, deceased.

And on the motion of Henry C. Blair, the Executor named in the said Will, who made oath thereto, and together with J. Allen Watts and Thomas Lewis, his securities, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of ($100,000.00) One Hundred Thousand Dollars, conditioned as the law directs, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said Will and codicil, in due form, the Court having ascertained and determined the tax on said Will to be $60.00, the same was paid to the clerk of this Court by said Executor.
