Laban Waldron.

Dec. 14th 1887.

I am now in the full possession of my mental powers, but calling to mind the uncertainty of life, I do make this my last Will and Testament.

1st I give to my beloved wife, Sarah Margaret, all my estate in the County of Roanoke, both real and personal, to wit: the tract of land on which I reside, together with Horses, Cattle, Farming implements, Household and Kitchen furniture and all Bonds or other evidences of money due me, with the single reservation named in the second devise of this will.

2nd I give to each of my three sisters, Mary Jane Deather, Elizabeth Jones and Ann Thomas, and to my Niece Sally Lural the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, making in the aggregate Eight Hundred Dollars, to be paid from the proceeds of my estate in the County of Bedford, should such proceeds be insufficient to pay the said sum of Eight Hundred Dollars, then my said wife Sarah Margaret, shall supplement the amount from my Roanoke estate, so that each one of my three sisters and my niece, aforesaid, shall have the sum of Two Hundred Dollars from estate.

3 I appoint my friend Jno. O. Myers Executor of this my Will.
