Teste

Wm. McCauley Clerk.

I, Jipton B. Evans of Wheatland in the County of Roanoke desiring to dispose of my property at my death in such manner as I think best to make this my last Will and Testament -

1st In case I die owing any debts, I desire that my Executors pay them -

2nd As soon as may be after my death, I direct that my Executors sell all of my property both real and personal (except that otherwise herein disposed of) upon good terms as they may deem best.

3rd To my beloved wife (in case she survives me) I give just such portion of my estate as my children shall receive to wit one sixth of the whole after the payment of debts and expenses the same to be paid to her ratably as the funds of the estate are collected by my executors - And in addition to this, I give to her my buggy and harness and a horse to be selected by her, also a bed and bedstead to be selected by her, and all my silver plate of every kind -

4th I direct that after the dispositions above made, the entire residue of my estate be divided by my executors among my eight children or their descendants, that is to each child or the descendants of any who may be dead one ninth of my estate - but as assets of my estate I desire to be included the amounts heretofore or hereafter advanced to my respective children whether the same be evidenced by bond or account and with the several advancements each heir or the descendants of any is to be charged as follows. My daughter Elizabeth F. Harper is to be charged with the sum of $1181.00 and any advancements I may hereafter make her -

The three sons of my deceased daughter Mary C. Dickinson are to be charged with the sum of $700.00 heretofore advanced to their parents and with any advancements I may hereafter make to them - My daughter Sarah J. Dickinson is only to be charged with so much of the amount I have advanced to her as shall amount to $750.00 and with any advancements I may hereafter make to her; My son John M. Evans is to be charged with the sum of $700.00 and with any advancements I may hereafter make to him; My daughter Lucy A. Starnes is to be charged with the sum of $700.00 and with any advancements I may hereafter make to her; to my daughter Carry M. Evans I have made no advancements, but she is to be charged with
