The following is to be my last will as to the disposition of the worldly goods and lands with which it has pleased God to bless me in this life.

I wish my Executor to be hereafter named by this will, to select auction on such credit as they may think best for the interest of my estate. All my property, both real and personal, except such articles of personal property as my dear wife Susan may see proper to select and keep for her use, amounting to not exceeding one third of my personal property.

I wish them to pay all my debts including the funeral expenses of a decent burial. I then wish them to put at yearly interest one third of my whole estate, after taking from that third the value of the articles selected by my said wife of my personal property for the sole use and benefit of my said wife during her life, the said interest to be paid her yearly for her use and support, & to be by her used as she may see fit & proper.

The balance of the proceeds of my estate, I wish disposed of as follows.

I wish my Executor as soon as that amount of my estate may be in hand, after the end of one year after my death, to pay to Christopher Bowman of Floyd seven hundred and fifty dollars to be by him held in trust for the use and benefit of the poor of the Dunkard denomination of Christians, the interest thereof to be used and applied by said Bowman at his will & discretion during his life time and the principal to be disposed of by him at his death as he may devise for the further use & benefit of the poor of said denomination.

I give to my daughter Mrs Elizabeth Graham one hundred dollars to be paid to her and not to her husband. The balance of the proceeds of my estate, I wish divided between my seven remaining children or the children and heirs of the body of such as may be dead at my death including the third of my estate willed to my wife during her lifetime, in the proportion and manner following.

I direct my executor to pay to my son John Quorum one seventh part of my said estate. I direct them to pay my son George Quorum one seventh part of my said estate. I direct them to pay to my daughter Mrs Catherine Sumrell one seventh part of my said estate to be paid to her or her order & not that of her husband, to be disposed of as she may see fit. I direct them to pay to my daughter Ossette Quorum one seventh part of my said estate. I direct them to put at interest one seventh of my said estate for, and until the full end of six years after my death to bear interest from the time it is collected & thus loaned out.
