Last will and testament

Joseph S. Tipton

Joseph S. Tipton

I Joseph S. Tipton, of the City of Roanoke, being of sound mind, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made:

I. I desire that all my just debts shall be paid by my executor, and that I may be buried in a manner suited to my estate and station in life, and that a suitable and proper stone shall be placed over my grave.

II. I give and bequeath to Miss Mary G. Burnett, in consideration of her many years of faithful services and unremitting attention and care for my comfort, when both sick and well, the house and lot on which I now reside in the City of Roanoke, Virginia, together with all household and kitchen furniture, therein and equipments of all kinds. Said house is located on Wells Avenue Northeast at No. 24. To have and to hold the same for her sole use and benefit during her natural life. At her death I will and devise the said house and the personal property therein above mentioned, in fee, to my namesake and great nephew, Joseph S. Tipton, son of Walter Tipton, of Hillsville, Virginia.

III. I give and bequeath the sum of Four Thousand and Dollars ($4000.00) to the children of my niece, Kate Foster, and of my nephew, Walter S. Tipton, the said sum to be divided equally between all of such children, share and share alike.

IV. I give and bequeath to Mary Ann Carson, who waited on my mother and nursed and cared for her during her last illness, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), as a testimony of my appreciation of her services, and I desire and direct that this legacy shall be treated as the first charge on my estate after the payment of my debts, and request that my executor shall pay the same in full with as little delay as possible.

V. I give to my niece, Martha Tipton, daughter of James S. Tipton, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars

J. P. Koutz.

I, J. P. Koutz, of the County of Roanoke, State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament in the manner and form following, revoking all others heretofore made by me.

I devise and bequeath all my estate, of whatever kind, to my beloved wife, Isabel J. Koutz for and during her natural life with authority to my executor, hereinafter named, to sell such portion thereof as may be necessary for the support and comfort of my said wife.

All the rest and residue of my estate remaining after the death of my said wife, I devise and bequeath, in equal portions, to our nephew and niece, Edward D. and Lavinia F. McCauley, share and share alike.

Should either the said nephew or niece die without issue, it is my will and desire that his or her portion, or residue thereof, shall go to the surviving one.

Should the said nephew and niece both die without issue, I devise and bequeath whatever residue there may be of my estate to the Trustees of the Lutheran Orphan Home at Salem, Virginia, for the benefit & use of the Orphan inmates therein.

It is my further will and desire that the provisions herein in favor of the said nephew and niece shall not effect unless & until after the death of my said wife, they purchase and cause to be placed at the graves of my said wife and myself a suitable monument, plain but neat & durable.

I desire the said nephew to keep or cause to be kept, dressed up, the old family burying ground in which my parents, grand parents and other dear relatives and friends are buried, by an annual cleaning of weeds and shrubs.

I nominate and appoint my said wife the executrix of this my will and desire that no security shall be required of her in its execution.

I do witness whereof, I hereunto affix my hand and seal, the 28th day of May, 1908.

H. O. Crawford

I, H. O. Crawford, being of sound mind and good health, but realizing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me, in manner and form as follows, that is to say:-

I. I desire that all my just debts be paid.

II. I have agreed and promised to pay the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) towards the new Church building of the congregation of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church of Salem, Virginia, and I have also agreed and promised to pay to the congregation of said Church an additional Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the general purposes of said congregation. I direct that, unless said One Thousand Dollars has been paid prior to my death, my executor, hereinafter appointed, shall pay said amount, or such amount as at my death may remain unpaid, to the Trustees of said congregation.

III. To my brother Buffy Crawford I give and bequeath the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150.00).

IV. To the Trustees of Roanoke College, at Salem, Virginia, I give and bequeath Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

I expressly charge, however, that none of my personal or real property shall be sold to pay any of the special bequests hereinafore made under paragraphs II, III, and IV; but unless there shall be on hand at my death cash and funds in bank or elsewhere, sufficient to pay said special bequests, together with all my just debts and funeral expenses, such special bequests shall be paid by my executor, hereinafter appointed, out of the rents, issues and profits of my estate, as follows, viz:

H. O. Crawford (Decl.)

The bequest to the congregation of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church to be paid at the rate of Three Hundred and Thirty-three Dollars and thirty-three cents ($333.33) per year, beginning one year after my death.

The bequest to Buffy Crawford to be paid at the rate of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per year, beginning one year after my death.

The bequest to the Trustees of Roanoke College to be paid at the rate of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per year, beginning one year after my death.

W. O. Crawford, being of sound mind and good health, but realizing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me, in manner and form as follows, that is to say:-

I. I desire that all my just debts be paid.

leaving issue surviving as of that date, then the above named brother and sisters surviving as of that date, or sisters surviving as of that date, shall take the share of said decedent; should said decedent have left issue surviving as of that date, such issue shall take the share of its parent. It being my intention hereby to create cross-remainders between the said four children, or the issue of such of them as shall die before the vesting of this estate, with ultimate remainder to the survivors, as at the time of vesting.

IX. I bequeath to my nephew V. Otway Sheppard One Dollar ($1.00).

X. I direct that none of my estate shall be sold or encumbered, unless necessary for the payment of my debts and funeral expenses, and that all of my property be kept together, held and managed by my said executor and trustee, until after the death of my sister Maggie M. Sheppard, and until the youngest of my said sister's children shall have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, until which time my said executor and trustee shall hold and manage my estate as herein provided for, and shall, if at my sister's death the youngest of said children mentioned in paragraph X. above is not yet twenty-one years of age, pay the rents, issues and profits of my estate, to such of said children as are surviving at that time, and as are of age, and as to such as are yet under twenty-one years of age, he shall apply their part of the rents, issues and profits to the maintenance and education of such children, until such time as all of said children shall attain the age of twenty-one years.

Third - after the death of my said sister Emilie Pumpkins, I give and devise said real estate "Montevary" or the proceeds of the sale thereof, as follows: - One half to my niece Bessie Pumpkins; and the remaining half thereof to the sisters and brother of my said niece Bessie Pumpkins, in equal portions, viz: Mary Hoover, Daisy Simpson and Homer Pumpkins; But in the event any or either of my said nieces and nephew, named above, shall die without lawful issue living, before said property is sold, the interest or share of the over so dying shall go to the ^{survivors or} survivors of them. And I further provide that after the death of my sister Emilie Pumpkins, my niece Bessie Pumpkins shall have entire control over and the exclusive use of said property "Montevary"; and shall not be charged with rent for the use and occupation thereof, until the same is sold.

Fourth - I direct my executor to sell my house and lot, on 15th Avenue (Lewis addition) in Roanoke City, Virginia, to do which full power to sell and convey the same, is hereby given to him; and to collect my land taxes and my other debts that may be due me, and out of the proceeds of the sale of said house and lot and of said taxes and debts, to pay to my Nephew James M. Pitzen, son of Ls. Madison Pitzen, the sum of Five Hundred dollars, and to Kate Pitzen, the daughter of the late Andrew Pitzen, the sum of one hundred dollars; and the residue to my sister Emilie Pumpkins -

But if I survive my said Nephew, James M. Pitzen my executor will pay the amount, $500.00 herein directed to be paid to him my said Nephew, to my said sister Emilie Pumpkins, on the event of her death, to her children then living. And should I survive the said Kate Pitzen, the amount $100.00, directed to be paid to her, shall be paid also to my said sister, Emilie Pumpkins, or, she being dead, to her children then living.

Fifth: My executor is authorized and directed, after the death of my sister Emilie Pumpkins to sell and convey my said real estate in the town of Salem Va. called "Montevary", where he shall be directed so to do by a majority in interest of those who will be entitled to said property or the proceeds thereof after the death of Emilie Pumpkins, as provided in clause three of this my will, and the proceeds of the sale thereof shall be paid by my executor to my nieces Bessie Pumpkins, Daisy Simpson and Mary Hoover and my nephew Homer Pumpkins, according to the respective interest of each as prescribed in said third clause of of this my will.

Sixth - I hereby appoint C. N. Hoover, of New Market, Virginia, executor of this my last will and testament, and request that he be allowed to qualify as such without security.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and my niece Bessie Tumpkins, as long as she remains unmarried, shall have a home at Monterey with her mother during the latter's life.

Third - after the death of my said sister Emilie Tumpkins, I give and devise said real estate "Monterey", or the proceeds of the sale thereof, as follows: - One half to my niece Bessie Tumpkins, and the remaining half thereof to the sisters and brother of my said niece Bessie Tumpkins, in equal portions, viz: Mary Hoover, Daisy Simpson and Homer Tumpkins; But in the event any or either of my said nieces and nephew, named above, shall die, without lawful issue, living, before said property is sold, the interest or share of the one so dying shall go to the ^{surviving or} survivors of them, And I further provide that after the death of my sister Emilie Tumpkins, my niece Bessie Tumpkins shall have entire control over and the exclusive use of said property "Monterey"; and shall not be charged with rent for the use and occupation thereof, until the same is sold.

Fourth - I direct my executor to sell my house and lot, on 17th Avenue (Lewis addition) in Roanoke City, Virginia, to do which full power to sell and convey the same, is hereby given to him; and to collect my land taxes and my other debts that may be due me, and out of the proceeds of the sale of said house and lot and of said taxes and debts, to pay to my Nephew James M. Last Will and Testament of L. M. Bruffey

In the name of God, Amen. I, L. M. Bruffey of Salem, Virginia, do make this my last will and testament as follows:

As to such worldly estate, real, personal and mixed, as I may die seized and possessed of, I dispose of the same as follows:

1. First, I give and devise unto my two nephews, William Lee Crawford and Eugene Lee Crawford, my house and lot in Salem, Virginia, where I live, together with all the personal property therein contained, said lot fronting on the South side of Main Street, in said town, and bounded on the West by the lot of Mr. Off, formerly owned by Mr. Bernard Pitzer, to be held by them in fee simple.

2. Secondly, I give and bequeath to Belle Davis Crawford one thousand dollars, I give and bequeath to Mrs. Margaret Shippard one thousand dollars, I give and bequeath to William Lee Crawford one thousand five hundred dollars, I give and bequeath to Eugene Lee Crawford, one thousand five hundred dollars.

3. Thirdly, after the payment of the above legacies, I will, devise and bequeath all the residue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, to my executor to be sold by him and the proceeds of the sale of same to be divided as follows:

One-fifth to William Lee Crawford; one-fifth to Eugene Lee Crawford; one-fifth to Laura Racket, only child of Sallie Crawford Racket, and grandchild of John Crawford; one-fifth to Belle Davis Crawford; one-fifth to Mrs. Edie Lucy.

4. Fourthly, I hereby authorize my executor to sell all my estate, real, personal and mixed, except the house and lot, together with all the personal property therein contained, heretofore devised to William Lee Crawford and Eugene Lee Crawford, and after paying my just debts and the special legacies as heretofore bequeathed in clause two (2) of this will, to divide the same among the legatees as set out in clause three (3) of this will.

5. Fifthly, I would respectfully suggest that my executor do not sell the real estate coming into his hands under this will within one year of my death, but wish him to use his discretion in this matter and not to consider my suggestion as binding upon him.

6. Sixthly, It is my will, which I want my executor to enforce, that in case any of the legatees under this will do undertake to bring suit to have this will broken, that said legatee shall be cut out of his legacy in any of the provisions of the said will, and such legatee or legatees part shall be equally divided among the other legatees of this will as set forth in clause three (3).

7. Seventhly, I hereby nominate and appoint William Lee Crawford my executor. It is my will, that my executor act without security on his bond, and that no compensation be allowed him, other than necessary expenses, including

Last Will and Testament of L. M. Bruffey

In the name of God, Amen. I, L. M. Bruffey of Salem, Virginia, do make this my last will and testament as follows:

As to such worldly estate, real, personal and mixed, as I may die seized and possessed of, I dispose of the same as follows:

1. First, I give and devise unto my two nephews, William Lee Crawford and Eugene Lee Crawford, my house and lot in Salem, Virginia, where I live, together with all the personal property therein contained, said lot fronting on the South side of Main Street, in said town, and bounded on the west by the lot of Mr. Off, formerly owned by Mr. Bernard Citzer, to be held by them in fee simple.

2. Secondly, I give and bequeath to Belle Davis Crawford one thousand dollars, I give and bequeath to Mrs. Margaret Sheppard one thousand dollars, I give and bequeath to William Lee Crawford one thousand five hundred dollars, I give and bequeath to Eugene Lee Crawford, one thousand five hundred dollars.

3. Thirdly, after the payment of the above legacies, I will, devise and bequeath all the residue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, to my executor to be sold by him and the proceeds of the sale of same to be divided as follows:

One-fifth to William Lee Crawford; one-fifth to Eugene Lee Crawford; one-fifth to Laura Racket, only child of Sallie Crawford Racket, and grandchild of John Crawford; one-fifth to Belle Davis Crawford; one-fifth to Mrs. Eddie Ruby.

4. Fourthly, I hereby authorize my executor to sell all my estate, real, personal and mixed, except the house and lot, together with all the personal property therein contained, heretofore devised to William Lee Crawford and Eugene Lee Crawford, and after paying my just debts and the special legacies as heretofore bequeathed in clause two (2) of this will, to divide the same among the legatees as set out in clause three (3) of this will.

5. Fifthly, I earnestly respectfully suggest that my executor do not sell the real estate coming into his hands under this will within one year of my death, but wish him to use his discretion in this matter and not to consider my suggestion as binding upon him.

6. Sixthly, It is my will, which I want my executor to enforce, that in case any of the legatees under this will do undertake to bring suit to have this will broken, that said legatee shall be cut out of his legacy in any of the provisions of the said will, and such legacy or legacies part shall be equally divided among the other legatees of this will as set forth in clause three (3).

7. Seventhly, I hereby nominate and appoint William Lee Crawford my executor. It is my will, that my executor act without security on his bond, and that no compensation be allowed him, other than necessary expenses, including

C. Hoffman

I, Samuel C. Hoffman, of the City of Roanoke, in the State of Virginia, being of lawful age and sound mind, do make public, and declare this as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore by me made.

It is my desire that my body shall be buried at Fairview Cemetery, if my wife deems proper to do so, otherwise where she may direct; and with such expense and provisions as accords with my position in life.

I hereby direct that all my lawful debts be paid from my estate, and that all the remainder of my estate, of whatever real, personal, money in the bank, debts due me, in heretofore bequeathed me or other property however evidenced be and the same is hereby devised and bequeathed to my wife, Ella May Hoffman, to be held and sold during her widowhood but should my said wife re-marry, I give all the unused part of my said estate remaining in her hands at the time of such marriage to our surviving children and direct that the same shall then be set apart for their benefit, education, clothing and maintenance.

I hereby appoint my said wife the guardian of our children and the executrix of my estate, to serve without bond and without being required to file any inventory of my estate or to have the same appraised.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifteenth day of January, 1908.

Will of Virginia P. Saunders

In the name of God, Amen:- I, Virginia P. Saunders, of the County of Roanoke, Town of Vinton, Virginia, considering the uncertainty of life and being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows; hereby revoking all former wills by me made at any time.

First: I direct that my body be decently buried, without useless expense, in a manner corresponding to my estate and situation in life.

Second: I direct that my funeral expenses, and physicians bills be paid as soon after my death as conveniently as may be, and that all my other just debts be paid, and to this end, I charge my whole estate, both real and personal for the payment of same, which estate consists of household and kitchen furniture, in Vinton, Va., located in the house in which I now reside, known as the Homestead, and the real estate consists of the house and lot in the Town of Vinton where I now reside, a vacant lot in the Town of Vinton, adjoining the property of W. Hoffmeyer, and one half undivided interest in two houses and lots purchased of Mrs. Vinyard, situated on Second and Jackson Streets and a house and lot in Roanoke County, in what is known as the McDonald Addition, just outside the corporate limits of the City of Roanoke.

Third: After the payment of all my just debts, as hereinabove provided, I devise and bequeath unto my beloved husband,

Virginia P. Saunders

I, E. Saunders, for his natural life, all of my estate, both real, personal and mixed, of whatever nature and kind, now owned, or which I may hereafter acquire and own at the time of my death, whether the same be legal or equitable, with full power over the same. Virginia - In the clerk's office, Circuit Court of Roanoke County, February 8th, 1914.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of (Mrs) Julia Parrish, deceased, was this day produced before me in the Clerk's office of said Court by W. A. Francis, the executor therein named, and was proved according to law by the oaths of H. W. Parrish and F. H. Webber, the subscribing witnesses thereto; the said witnesses testifying on oath that the testatrix signed and acknowledged the said will in the presence of each of them, and that they signed the said paper as witnesses in the presence of each other and of the testatrix, all then being present at the same time, and that in their opinion the testatrix was of sound and disposing mind and memory at the time of the signing of the said paper.

Whereupon the said paper writing is probated and admitted to record as and for the last will and testament of the said Julia Parrish, deceased. And on motion of W. A. Francis, the executor named in said will, who made oath thereto, and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) conditioned according to law, but without security as provided in said will, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

 Campbell

In the name of God, amen, I Elizabeth Campbell, of the town of Salem, Va. do make this my last will and testament as follows:

I direct that my body be decently buried, in a manner corresponding to my estate and situation in life, but with as little expense as may be, consistently therewith.

And as to such worldly estate as I may die seized and possessed of, I do dispose of as follows:

To my son, James P. Campbell, I do bequeath and give as his part of my property, the following, to-wit: The two acres of ground now owned by me on the east side of the Cam Road; said property bounded on the north by the lot of C. K. Grove and on the south by the lot of Matt Smith; I also give to him to have and to hold for his natural life, all of that lot he now lives on except sixteen feet front, running the same width all the way back, and at his death, the same is to go to his children in fee simple. I also give to him in fee simple, one half (20 x 50 feet) of lot 16
 sec. 10 on Ohio street.

To my grand daughter, Elizabeth Campbell, I do give and bequeath to her and her heirs, a lot on Alabama street - right hand side.
 To my daughter, Emma Cousins, I do give and bequeath in presence of us, who, at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses hitherto.

Virginia - In the Clerk's Office, Circuit Court of Roanoke County, November 10th 1912.

The last will and testament of Charles J. Campbell, deceased, dated August 29th, 1912, was this day produced before me in the Clerk's Office of said Court by Mena C.
Hurt, the executrix therein named, and proved according to law by the oaths of L. B. Thornton and E. M.
Fitzgerald, the subscribing witnesses thereto, the said witnesses testifying that the decedent had signed and acknowledged the said paper as his last will and testament in their presence; that they had signed the same as witnesses at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other,
all three being present at the same time.

Thereupon the said paper is probated and admitted to record as and for the true last will and testament of the said Charles J. Campbell, deceased. And on motion of (Miss) Mena C. Hurt, Executrix named in said will, who made oath thereto, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00), conditioned according to law, but without security as provided by the said testator in his said will, certificate is granted her for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

And on motion of Mena C. Hurt, Executrix, it is ordered that E. M. Fitzgerald, C. L. Halcher, Eld Zinke, C. W. Chapman, and W. H. Hawley, or any three of them, being first duly sworn for the purpose, do truly and justly appraise such of the goods and chattels of C. J. Campbell deceased, as may be produced to them, and return their appraisement under their hands as the law directs.
