Virginia - In the Clerk's Office, Circuit Court of Roanoke County, November 10th 1914.

The last will and testament of Charles J. Campbell, deceased, dated August 29th, 1914, was this day produced before me in the Clerk's Office of said Court by Mena C.
Skurt, the executrix therein named, and proved according to law by the oaths of L. B. Thornton and E. M.
Fitzgerald, the subscribing witnesses thereto, the said witnesses testifying that the decedent had signed and acknowledged the said paper as his last will and testament in their presence; that they had signed the same as witnesses at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other,
all three being present at the same time.

Thereupon the said paper is probated and admitted to record as and for the true last will and testament of the said Charles J. Campbell, deceased. And on motion of (Miss) Mena C. Skurt, Executrix named in said will, who made oath thereto, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00), conditioned according to law, but without security as provided by the said testator in his said will, Certificate is granted her for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

And on motion of Mena C. Skurt, Executrix, it is Ordered that E. M. Fitzgerald, C. L. Hatcher, Eld Zinslee, C. W. Chapman, and W. J. Kaley, or any three of them, being first duly sworn for the purpose, do truly and justly appraise such of the goods and chattels of C. J. Campbell deceased, as may be produced to them, and return their appraisement under their hands as the law directs.

I, W.D. Wellbourne, of the County of Roanoke, and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and declare this as and for my last will and testament in manner and form following, To-wit:

Item I. It is my desire that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my demise as may be conveniently done, and to that end I direct my executor hereinafter named to proceed.

Item II. To Rosa Gertrude Robertson, the girl whom we have raised, though never legally adopted, but who has adopted our name, I specifically give the piano in my home, free and discharged from any encumbrance thereon.

Item III. To my beloved wife Ella W. Wellbourne, I give and devise absolutely a free, equal and undivided one-half interest in and to all of my estate, real, personal and mixed, to be her sole property, and to be disposed of by her as she may deem to her best interest. As to the residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, I give to my beloved wife a life

Virginia - In the Clerk's office, Circuit Court of Roanoke County, the 11th day of March, 1910.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of W. E. Welborn, deceased, was this day produced before me in the Clerk's office of said court by J. K. Richardson, the executor therein named, and was duly proved according to law by the oaths of Louise Stafford and Mrs. S. K. Johnson, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon, on motion of said executor, admitted to probate as and for the true last will and testament of the said W. E. Welborn, deceased. And on motion of the said J. K. Richardson, the executor named in said will, who made oath thereto, and having entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Nine Thousand Dollars ($900.00) with the United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company as his surety, said bond being conditional according to law, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form.

Thereupon, on motion of the said executor, it is ordered that Edward Grant, J. B. Riley, Esq., Grant, B. S. Price and J. H. Wingfield, or any three of them, being first duly sworn for the purpose, do truly and justly appraise such of the goods and chattels of W. E. Welborn, deceased, as may be produced to them, and return their appraisement under their hands as the law directs.

 from any cause, any part of said six thousand dollars life insurance shall not be collected and received by her, then I do give and bequeath to her such further sum of money as is sufficient to make up the deficiency caused by the failure to receive said life insurance, so that in any event she shall have and receive the full sum of twenty thousand dollars in money.

I also give and bequeath unto her the said Ella M. Northing, all of my household property and effects of every kind, both useful and ornamental silverware, bric-a-brac and all other articles situated in and about my residence in Marianna Arkansas, and the horse and vehicle and cattle in use at my residence in Marianna Arkansas, in lot number (3) three of Block K. Pharr's Survey, and bounded on the north by the property of Hugh Nixon, on the south by School property, on the east by Cedar Street, and on the west by Mulberry Street; also my brick stone house and lot on the public square in Marianna Arkansas, described as Lot number three (3) of Block D. Pharr's Survey; also my farm near Marianna Arkansas described as to hold all of said property unto her the said Ella M.

 Northing absolutely, and in fee simple, the same to be taken by her in lieu of all her claim of dower and homestead and otherwise out of my estate.

Third- I do give and bequeath unto my nephew,
 Northern Harrington, the sum of one thousand dollars in money, the same to be received and held by W. M. Clinton as trustee (without bond) for the use and benefit of said Northern Harrington; said trustee shall hold said fund until said Northern Harrington shall become twenty-one years of age; he is authorized to loan or invest the same to the best advantage in his judgment, and may in his discretion, expend so much of the profits or income from said fund as he may deem proper, in the education and maintenance of said Northern Harrington, and he shall pay over to the said principal sum of one thousand dollars and expended profits or income therefore to said Northern Harrington as soon as he becomes twenty-

I do have and to have all of said property unto her the said Ella M. Northing absolutely, and in fee simple, the same to be taken by her in lieu of all her claim of dower and homestead and otherwise out of my estate.

Third - I do give and bequeath unto my nephew, Northern Harrington, the sum of one thousand dollars in money, the same to be received and held by W. M. McIntosh as trustee (without bond) for the use and benefit of said Northern Harrington; said trustee shall hold said fund until said Northern Harrington shall become twenty-one years of age; he is authorized to loan or invest the same to the best advantage in his judgment, and may in his discretion, expend so much of the profits or income from said fund as he may deem proper, in the education and maintenance of said Northern Harrington, and he shall pay over to the said principal sum of one thousand dollars and expended profits or income therefore to said Northern Harrington as soon as he comes twenty-one years of age; but in the event of the death of the said Northern Harrington before reaching twenty-one years of age, I do give said sum of one thousand dollars and any of the unsuspended profits or income therefrom, to his mother, Georgia A. Harrington, and in that sum

Es. Northern, Mrs. Anna Buckner, Mrs. Mildred Miller, Lucy Northern, Davis Northern, and Thomas Northern, the children of my deceased brother Robt Northern the sum of four thousand dollars between them; and to Alfred H. Ayers, Mrs. Bertrude Clark, Mamie Ayers and William Ayers, the children of my deceased sister Hannah M. Ayers the sum of four thousand dollars between them.

Eighth— After all the foregoing bequests and claims, if there should remain any residue of my estate after payment of debts and expenses of administration, I do give and bequeath the sum of, as follows, viz; one-half of such residue to my wife Ella M. Northern, and the remaining half to Wm. McClintock, as trustee, for Northern, Karlington and Ewing McClintock, and Edward G. Thompson, Eliza McClintock, Jas. B. Maclin, Geo. D. Maclin, and John Maclin to be divided between them in the same proportion as the money bequests hereinbefore made to them.

Ninth— In the event that the firm of P. E. Northern & Co., a partnership between Wm. McClintock and myself, doing a general mercantile business in Marianna, Arkansas, shall be in existence at the time of death, it is my purpose and desire that the said Wm. McClintock, as the surviving partner, shall not be hindered and to the ordinary rules of law as to his power as to winding up the business and in handling and disposing of the firms property, but on the contrary, I want to confer upon him the fullest and most complete powers and authority in that behalf to act towards and with my interest therein the same as he does or would do with his own or would have me do with his own, or would have me do with his under like circumstances, so that no loss or injury may occur to either his interest or mine on account of over power in him to manage and to dispose of said business and property to the best advantage, and I repose the utmost confidence in his ability, judgment, and integrity.

To that end, I do authorize and empower him, as such surviving partner, to take as long as three years after my death, within which to wind up and dispose of said business and partnerships property, either by closing it out or disposing of it; and during that time full power and authority is conferred upon him to operate said business and carry it on in the firm name, not merely to wind it up, but to carry it on in full operation the same as if I were alive, and to make all necessary contracts in the firm name, binding my estate and interest therein the same as if I were alive, and still a member of the firm; he may at any time within the said three years or at the end thereof, either close out said business and

Es. Ayers, Mrs. Gertrude Clark, Mamie Ayers and William Ayers, the children of my deceased sister Hannah M. Ayers the sum of four thousand dollars between them.

✓ Eighth. - After all the foregoing bequests and claims, if there should remain any residue of my estate after payment of debts and expenses of administration, I do give and bequeath the sum of, as follows, viz; one-half of such residue to my wife Ella M. Northern; and the remaining half to Wm. McClintock, as trustee, for Northern, Karlington and Ewing McClintock, and Edward G. Thompson, Eliza McClintock, Jas. B. Maclean, Geo. W. Maclean, and John D. Maclean to be divided between them in the same proportion as the money bequests hereinbefore made to them.

Ninth. - In the event that the firm of P. E. Northern & Co., a partnership between Wm. McClintock and myself, doing a general mercantile business in Marion, Arkansas, shall be in existence at the time of death, it is my purpose and desire that the said Wm. McClintock, as the surviving partner, shall not be hindered and to the ordinary rules of law as to his power as to winding up the business and in handling and disposing of the firm's property, but on the contrary, I want to confer upon him the fullest and most complete powers and authority in that behalf to act towards and with my interest therein the same as he does or would do with his own or would have me do with his own, or would have me do with his under like circumstances, so that no loss or injury may occur to either his interest or mine on account of loss of power in him to manage and to dispose of said business and property to the best advantage, and I repose the utmost confidence in his ability, judgment, and integrity.

F. H. Gowan after being duly sworn deposes as follows:
 I am fifty-six years old, reside in Lee County, Ark. Kansas, and am one of the subscribing witnesses to the last will and testament of Philander Ewing Northern, which is now before the court for probate, and I identify the same as being the same instrument executed by the said P. E. Northern as the same I witnessed. The said P. E. Northern executed and declared the same to be his last will and testament, in the presence of E. A. McCulloch and myself, and requested us to sign the same as attesting witnesses thereto, which we did in his presence and in the presence of each other. We signed our names as witnesses to said will where the same appears subscribed to the attestation clause of said will and following the signature of said P. E. Northern. He was at the time of signing said will of sound mind and memory.

Virginia - In the Circuit Court of Roanoke County, April 7th, 1914:

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of (Miss) Kate S. Wingfield, deceased, dated August 2nd, 1908, was this day produced before the Court by L. A. Wingfield, Esq., and neither of the subscribing witnesses thereto being present, L. A. Wingfield was duly sworn, and deposed that he was well acquainted with the hand-writing of the said Kate S. Wingfield, deceased, and that he verily believed the said paper writing and the name thereto signed to have been wholly written by the said Kate S. Wingfield. Whereupon it is ordered that the said writing be, and the same is hereby probated and admitted to record as and for the true last will and testament

A paper writing, bearing date the 3rd day of November 1889, purporting to be the last will and testament of Right Reverend Augustin Van De Vyver, deceased, late of this city, was this day produced to the court for proof; and there being no subscribing witnesses to said paper writing, very Reverend J. J. Bowler and Rev. Louis J. Duist and Frederick Litterding, being first duly sworn for the purpose, severally depared that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Right Reverend Augustin Van De Vyver, deceased, having frequently seen him write, and that they verily believe the said paper writing and the signature thereunto to be wholly in the handwriting of the said Right Reverend Augustin Van De Vyver deceased, and they further depared that at the time said paper writing bears date, the said Right Reverend Augustin Van De Vyver was of sound mind and memory.

Thereupon the said paper writing is established and ordered to be recorded as and for the true last will and testament of the said Right Reverend Augustin Van De Vyver, deceased.

And it being shown to the court that John Joseph Kain, one of the executors named in said will, is dead, and John Joseph Kaine, another executor therein named, having declined to take upon himself the burden of executing the said will, on the motion of His Eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons, the other surviving executor named in said will, he was permitted by the court to qualify as such; and thereupon he made oath as the law directs, and entered into and acknowledged a bond as such Executor in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars, payable and conditioned according to law, but without security, the said will denoting that none should be required of him.

And certificate is granted His Eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons for obtaining a probate of the said will in and form.

Also white box in room next to Randy's a small white painted box with grandpa Boys cut glass ice cream bowl for Mrs Tate Stennett. My last will is in green silk and black silk velvet bag in largest grey trunk dated Oct. 4, 1905. Signed by Wm. B. Miller and Charles H. Kage.

Also I sold my 307 N. M. W. St. house at 20 hundred and had to payout of it $50. Dollars tax that year as he cheated me that much and I paid Wm. K. Sanders $5. to attend to deed for S. Pinderlake I invested money at Roanoke, Va. in house and lot No. 714 14th Street S. East Belmont worth when bought $5000 Dollars, one thousand and five hundred and fifty dollars, worth now 18 hundred dollars, I also bought a double yellow eight room house at Roanoke, Va. at $1000 Eleven hundred dollars, worth $2 hundred dollars now, cost for food & $8.48 back water tax. I only found out two weeks ago. Bought from man by name of Figgate, cash (5th continued as regards Mrs Maria L. Sherrard's will and property)

I have sold and re-invested in 1908. Since then I have a $600 hundred Certificate Clover Manuf. Co. Clover, S. Carolina invested May 10th, 1910, at 7 per cent. Mr. M. L. Smith Treas. invested it. I wish that to be collected & equally divided with Tate Boys Stennett of Kat Springs, Va., Bath County, son of Tate Stennett, and Maria Boys Stennett, niece of mine. The other 1/2 of property I mentioned to go to John Bishop of Hagerstown Md. son of Mrs Margaret Smith now mother of John Bishop, my niece's son of Hagerstown Md. This is change must be.

6 rest of my will will go as it is written Oct. 5th, 1905. my 307 N. M. W. St. only paid me $3200 over and above taxes paid out.

I have also $14 hundred Certificate at Clover S. C. Manuf. Co. M. L. Smith, Treas. put there the 11th of April 1910, & no interest as yet drawn at 7 per cent. So that it is drawn by check that I wish to go to John Henry Feather. This the last will and testament of John Henry Feather of near Blue Ridge church Roanoke County Virginia made this 14th day of October 1914.

I John Henry Feather being of sound mind and in my usual health, and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make this my last will and testament for the distribution of such property as I may be in possession of.

First I desire that my body be committed to the earth from which it was taken and that my soul may return to God who gave it.

Second That all funeral expenses doctors bills and all other debts I may owe at the time of my death may be paid from the proceeds of my estate and after all such debts and liabilities are paid and settled all the balance of my estate both real and personal I hereby give and bequeath to James Henry Feather son of John A. Feather and Susan J. Feather to have and to hold the same to him and his heirs forever.

I also appoint the said James Henry Feather to be the executor of this my last will and testament and would request the Honorable court of Roanoke County Virginia to so confirm this request of mine as to so appoint the said James Henry Feather my Executor without requiring him to give any security for the faithful performance of those duties.

 according to law, deposes and says as follows:

1st. Q. Were you acquainted with Avis A. Bachman, now deceased, during her lifetime, and were you present with her and A. F. Moore on the 19th day of February, 1915, that being the date of the signing of a codicil to her
 Will by her, and the attestation of yourself and A. F. Moore?
 Answer. Yes.

2nd. Q. What was the condition of her mind on that day?
 Was she of sound and disposing memory?

Answer. To all appearances she was a person of sound mind.

3rd. Q. Did she, in your presence, and in the presence of A. F. Moore, acknowledge and publish that paper as a codicil to her last Will and Testament, which paper is hereto attached and exhibited to you, and did you and A. F. Moore sign that paper at her request, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other as witnesses?

Answer. Yes.

4th. Q. Is the signature of A. F. Moore thus attached signed to this paper in his own hand writing, and did you see him sign it in your presence and in the presence of Avis A. Bachman as a witness to that paper, as a codicil to the last Will and Testament of Avis A. Bachman, deceased?

Answer. Yes.

And further this deponent saith not.

codicil to the last will and testament of Avis A. Bachman, deceased, was presented to this Court, and the said Will was proved according to Law by the testimony of C. C. Ellis and Laura Q. Furebee (ms.), attesting witnesses to the said will, and the said codicil was proved by the depositions of A. F. Moore and C. C. Stauffer, attesting witnesses to the said codicil taken, on the 3rd day of April, 1915, pursuant to a commission appointing B. B. Baker, a Notary Public of the City of Harrisburg, State of Pennsylvania, to take said depositions of A. F. Moore and C. C. Stauffer, attesting witnesses to said Codicil as aforesaid.

Whereupon it is ordered that the said Will and Codicil this day presented to the Court be admitted to probate and recorded as and for the true and last Will and Testament of Avis A. Bachman, deceased.

And it appearing to the Court that in the codicil hereinabove referred to, that J. W. Preston is nominated as the "Administrator" of the estate of the said Avis A. Bachman, deceased. On consideration whereof the Court doth construe the word "Administrator" as used by the said decedent as aforesaid, to mean "Executor" and thereupon, the said J. W. Preston nominated as aforesaid, qualified as such Executor of Avis A. Bachman, deceased, and is required to enter into bond in the penalty of $80,000 Dollars conditioned according to Law, but without security, the said Codicil requesting that no security be required of him, and thereupon the said Executor entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $80,000.00 payable to the Commonwealth of Virginia, and conditioned according to Law, and the said J. W. Preston took the oath prescribed by Law.

And upon motion of the said J. W. Preston, the following parties were nominated to appraise the estate of Avis A. Bachman, deceased, W. R. Tippet, F. W. Outson, C. C. Ellis, J. B. Bear, and C. E. Holcomb, any three of whom may act as appraisers of the estate of the said Avis A. Bachman, deceased.

Virginia - In the Clerk's office, Circuit Court of Orange County, the 17th day of May 1915.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Geo. L. Brown, deceased, dated December 28th 1907, was this day produced before me in the Clerk's office of said County by Mrs M W Brown, the heir and widow of said Geo L Brown, and the executrix therein named, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, J Sinclair Brown and Mrs C S Bowers were duly sworn, and severally deposed that they were well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Geo. L. Brown, deceased, and that they verily believed the said writing and the name thereto signed to have been wholly written by the testator's own hand; Whereupon it is ordered that the said paper writing be, and the same is, hereby probated, and admitted to record as and for the true last will and testament of the said Geo. L. Brown deceased.

Then upon, on motion of the said Mrs M W Brown who made oath thereto, having entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000⁰⁰) conditioned according to law, (but without security as provided by the terms of said will) Certificate is granted her for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

Will of J. M. Bowie

I J. M. Bowie of the County of Roanoke, State of Virginia, considering the uncertainty of life and being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament, in manner and form as follows; hereby revoking all former wills by me made at any time.

First, I desire that my body be decently buried, in manner corresponding to my estate and station in life, but with as little expense as may be consistent therewith.

Second, I desire that my funeral expenses and physicians' bills be paid as soon after my death as conveniently may be and that all my other just debts be paid by my Executrix, hereinafter named,
and to this end I charge my whole estate, real,
personal and mixed, with payment of same.

Third, After the payment of all my just debts,
I devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Emma L. Bowie, all my estate, real, personal and mixed, of whatever nature and kind, which I now own, or which I may hereafter acquire, and own at the time of my death, though the same be legal or equitable, absolute and in
