I do this not because I am unbusinessful of the interest of my children but because I have but a moderate amount of property to leave my family and having full confidence in the ability of my wife to manage it for the best interests of herself and children. I desire her to have full control and management of it.

3rd. I appoint my beloved wife Rebecca F. Miller, Executrix of this my last will and testament and I desire that she may make required to give security.

In witness whereof I have signed & sealed and published and declared this instrument as my will at Saltville Virginia on this the 8th day of April Eighteen Nineteen and Ninety two.

Charles H. Burwell

I Charles H. Burwell of Roanoke County Va. declare this to be my last will and testament.

1. Subject to the dower and distributive rights of my wife I devise and bequeath to my son Phillip Ludwell Burwell all of my estate real and personal, which may remain after paying my just debts.
2. I charge the property real and personal which I give to my said son Phillip with the sum of three hundred dollars per year to be paid by him to my daughter Lucy Lindley Burwell during her life.
3. I make the provisions herein contained for my son Phillip, because of the way he has remained with me and cared for my property and family, and not from forgetfulness or lack of affection for my other descendants.

I believe that if my granddaughter, Virginia Randolph Burwell should need help he will give it to her according as he may be able, a matter which I leave to him to determine.

4. I appoint my said son Phillip Ludwell Burwell my executor and request that no security be required of him.

Isiah Reynolds

In the name of God, Amen: I, Isiah Reynolds, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make this my last will and testament.

I desire, after my death, to be decently buried, and my funeral expenses to be paid out of my estate by my executor hereinafter named.

I devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Millie Reynolds all my estate, real, personal and mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed - The personal estate I devise absolutely, but the real estate I devise to my wife for her natural life, and at her death, I devise the same to my daughter Ollie Brown, and her children, should she have any, but in no event shall the said real estate be held responsible for any debt or liability contracted by her present husband, whether heretofore or hereafter contracted, or be encumbered in any way, manner or form, for his benefit.

It is my desire that my beloved wife, Millie Reynolds will permit her sister Esther Jones to use for her own benefit during her natural life, a part of the lot of land on which we now live, and the same devised to my said wife for her natural life.
 The said part not to include any buildings or improvements and to front fifty feet on the street running from the Craig Avenue to "Muddy Pond" commonly known as the "Muddy Pond" Road, and running back from said street or road between parallel lines, the depth of my lot: this use and enjoyment of said lot to be allowed to said Esther Jones during her lifetime and at her death then to be held by my wife, if she be then living under the devise above made to her of my estate and if my wife be then dead, then to be held by my daughter and her children as devised above this use and enjoyment of said lot by said Esther Jones however, is to be subject to the control of my wife.
 I hereby appoint my beloved wife, executrix of conditioned according to law, but without security, the said will directing that none should be required of him, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form.

I, Henry Rosenheim of the city of Baltimore in the State of Maryland, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:
I give, devise and bequeath my furniture, diamonds, jewelry, silverware, plate pictures, books paintings and all my household articles and utensils unto my two daughters Henrietta F. Rosenheim and Mina Rosenheim as tenants in common absolutely.

Second.

I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter Mina Rosenheim, absolutely all money and proceeds received from or out of policy No. 123279 on my life in the Aetna Life Insurance Company, said policy being for the sum of Five thousand dollars. I have already effected an insurance on my life in the Mutual (Gleeve Fund Life Association for the sum of Five thousand dollars in favor of my daughter Henrietta F. Rosenheim, and if said last named policy cannot for any reason be collected, then in such event the above bequest in this clause contained shall be void, and in such event the proceeds of said first mentioned policy in the Aetna Life Insurance Co. shall be equally divided between my two daughters Henrietta F. and Mina absolutely.

Third.

I give, devise and bequeath my warehouse property in Baltimore City on the South side of West Baltimore street between Eutan and Paca streets and known as Number 413 West Baltimore street (old number 375 West Baltimore street) to my sons Charles F. Rosenheim and Caesar W. Rosenheim, and the survivor of them. In trust and confidence to hold the same, collect all rents, issues and incomes thereof, pay all taxes, insurance, ground rent, repairs and other expenses thereon, and pay the net income arising therefrom to my two daughters Henrietta F. and Mina in equal shares, quarterly until their death or marriage, whichever shall first occur. Upon the death or marriage of both of my said daughters, this trust shall cease and said property shall vest absolutely in all my children, share and share alike. If only one of my said daughters should die or marry, the entire income from said property shall be paid to the other, as long as she lives and does not marry; upon the death or marriage of the latter whichever shall first occur, this trust shall cease, and said property shall vest absolutely in all my children share and share alike. A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Ellen S.
Campbell, deceased, dated December 14th, 1916, was this day produced before me in the Clerk's Office of said Court by Edgar Morris, the executor therein named, and was duly proved according to law by the oaths of A. B. Campbell and M. S. Felton, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, it appearing that D. F. Bradpher, the other subscribing witness to said paper, has departed this life; and on motion of said Executor the said paper meeting is probated and admitted to record as and for the true last will and testament of the said Ellen S. Campbell, deceased. And on motion of the said Edgar Morris, the executor named in said will, who made oath thereto, and having entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Eighteen Hundred Dollars ($1800.00), conditioned as the law directs, but without security, as provided in said will, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

Thereupon, on motion of the said Edgar Morris, Executor as aforesaid, it is ordered that A. B. Campbell, H. A. Porter, M. S.
Felton, Robert Murphy and J. H. Duckwiler, or any three of them, being first duly sworn for the purpose, do truly and justly appraise such of the goods and chattels of Ellen S. Campbell, deceased, as may be produced to them, and return their appraisement

Hester P. Collins

In the name of God! Amen.

I, Hester P. Collins, being of sound and disposing mind, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

First: I direct that all my just debts be paid.

Second: I devise unto my daughter, Hallie Payne, for her natural life the home place on which I now reside, containing about 37 acres, being part of the Allen Bradley tract, together with all improvements thereon.
At death of my said daughter, I devise my said home place to each of the children of my said daughter, Hallie Payne, as are living at the time of her death.

Third: I bequeath unto my two daughters, Susan Davis and Hallie Payne, all the personal property located in my residence, except the organ which is the property of Hallie Payne. I desire that they shall divide this property between them in equal shares.

Fourth: I direct that the part of the Catherine Penn tract now owned by me be sold by my executor, herein named, which tract contains about 37 acres and lies on Morris Creek. I direct my executor to convey this property to Leticia Tyler, providing she complies with the terms of the contract I now have with her. If she fails to comply with said contract, then my executor, herein named, shall sell and convey said property in such manner and upon such terms as he thinks best.

Out of the proceeds my said executor shall first pay all my just debts, including my funeral expenses, and all costs incidental to the sale of the property;

Second, he shall pay to my daughter, Hallie Payne $500.00 (Five hundred dollars) to be used in repairing the home place. The balance of this fund shall be held and invested by my said executor, until all the children of my daughter, Susan Davis and Hallie Payne, become twenty-one years of age, and the income therefrom shall be paid to my said daughters as follows: one half of said income to Susan Davis and one half of said income to Hallie Payne, to be used by them as they think best for their respective children. When all of said children of Susan Davis and Hallie Payne become twenty-one years of age, my said executor shall pay one half of said principal fund to the children of Susan Davis to be divided equally among them, and he shall pay the remaining one half to the children of Hallie Payne, to be equally divided among them.

I will and desire that Wilson Baldwin shall be executor of this my last will and in the qualification of Wilson Baldwin as executor of this my will, I request and direct that no security be required of him. In testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal this the 28th day of March in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirteen.

I, C. M. Lemon being of sound mind, and disposing memory make this my last will and testament. Having in mind the education of my son Ralph Lemon, I hereby bequeath to him one thousand dollars as a specific bequest to be used for this purpose. I bequeath to my wife Kate B. Lemon my home place so long as she remains my widow.

This home place comprises the home house, and buildings going therewith, all my meadow lands in front of the house, and the lands on either side of said house, and in rear of the same, the whole are hereby bequeathed containing about 175 acres. I also bequeath to my wife my chamber suit of furniture, and also my life policy of two thousand dollars which is made payable to her. The five hundred dollar life policy, is to be included with my other personal property, and be divided equally between my three children. But the estate which my daughter Mrs. Emmett Turner is to take under this will is to be hers for her life time only, and at her death to go to the children of her body then living. She is to have the usufruct during her lifetime. In all the personal estate not specifically bequeathed by this will, and in addition to the special bequests for her benefit, it is my will that my wife shall receive therein such portion as she would have taken, if I had died intestate. I hereby appoint Kate B. Lemon my executrix, and request that she be allowed to qualify without security, on her bond. It is my desire that my executrix shall employ my friend O. W. Saunders as her legal adviser. It is further my will that all of my real estate other than that which is devised to my wife for her lifetime, shall be sold by my executrix for the purpose of division between those who will be entitled therein, and my said executrix is given full power and authority to pass title to all real estate sold by her, as herein authorized, by proper conveyance. It is also my will, and necessary authority to that end is hereby given, that my executrix shall make title to all land heretofore sold by me the title to which has not been made at the time of my death. Given under my hand this March 11, 1913.
 C. M. Lemon.

including the furniture of every description pertaining thereto: and likewise any supplies of provisions, groceries &c, that may be on hand at my decease, I further devise to her, in like manner during her life, the lot on the back street, formerly belonging to Mrs. Mary T. Thanks, and purchased by me at a sale of property made under a decree of the Court in the case of Moore & wife vs Darrays heirs, also the following slaves, Yellow Fanny, valued by me at $150. Edmund $900. William $800. Tom $1100. Lucy $800. Jenny $500. Frances $600. Anna $600. Henrietta $400. Braxton $300. America $200. Minney $600. Nancy $250. Isham $500. Harvey $400. Daniel $1000. Isaac $1000. Lizzy $800. Saml $600. Mary $400. Jim $350. Harriet $350 Susan $200. Louise $900. Joe $350. Oliver $300. and Ellen $800. amounting to $15150. which together with the real Estate, furniture &c. above devised, valued by me at $10,000. amounts to the sum of $25150.00.

At the death of my said Wife, it is my Will, that the real Estate embraced in the foregoing devise, together with the furniture belonging to the hotel be sold by my executor, and the proceeds of such sale, as well as the slaves above enumerated and their increase equally divided amongst my children.

Third. I direct that my executor, so soon after my decease as they may deem it advisable, shall sell my Bent Mountain land in tracts of from one to five hundred acres as may seem most suitable, and also any other real estate I own, not included in the preceding claim, on such terms as they may think most advantageous, and execute the necessary Conveyances therefor to the purchasers. The money arising from such sales, together with all the residue of my estate.

I devise in equal shares to my children, William James, Martha Susan Nelson, John Henry, Pauline M., Eliza Jane, Virginia C., George S., Charles T. and Robert. such of my children as may be of full age or married, it is my desire shall receive their portion of my estate so soon as they can conveniently be allotted to them; and such of them as may be under the age of twenty one and unmarried, are to receive their portions as they severally attain to full age or marry.

With regard to the Slaves that may be allotted to those of my children who are under twenty one years of age, I direct that

The Last Will and Testament of James Junkin Dull.

James Junkin Dull (Seal)

I, James Junkin Dull, of the city of Harrisburg, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made.

First. I hereby direct all my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid by my executors, hereinafter named, as soon after my decease as they conveniently can.

Second. I give and bequeath to the Home for the Friendless, located at the corner of Fifth and Muesch Streets, in the City of Harrisburg, Penna., the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000.00).

Third. I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter, Jennie J. other property, situate in Mifflin County, Penna., (my brothers, Andrew J. Dull and W. C. Dull, being the owners of the other undivided two-thirds part), shall be sold within five (5) years after my decease.

Ninth. It is also my will and I hereby direct, that the two tracts of land, one known as the Kelly farm, located at Budent Cabins, and the Jeffries farm, both situate in Fulton County, Penna., shall be sold within five (5) years after my decease. (J. Nelson Tipes has an interest in the profits from these two farms; he has acted as my agent and will render a full account thereof.)

Tenth. To effectuate the purposes of this my will, I hereby vest in my executors, hereinafter named, full power and authority to dispose of my real estate, in fee simple, or for a term of years, or otherwise, in as full and ample a manner (in every respect, as I could myself do, if living.

Eleventh. In the event of any dispute, or disagreement, shall arise among my said children in the settlement and disposition of my estate, it is my will and wish that the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, shall appoint three (3) reputable, competent and disinterested persons, citizens of Harrisburg, who upon oath, shall arrange and adjust such disputes and disagreements. From which adjustment, when so made, there shall be no appeal, but the same shall be and remain as to such disputes and disagreements, final and conclusive.

Lastly. I nominate and appoint my daughter, Jennie J. Dull, and my two sons, Casper Dull and Daniel M. Dull, to be the executrix and executors of this my last will and testament, to perform their duties without charge.

who deposed on oath that the said paper was signed

John Howe Peyton, Dec'd. Will Probated:

Be it remembered that on this the 19th day of September, 1918, before the Hon. Litton Hickman, Judge of the County Court of Davidson County, Tenn.; a paper writing was produced in open court purporting to be the last will and testament of John Howe Peyton, deceased, bearing date March 17, 1917, having the name of Jns. Howe Peyton signed thereto, and being subscribed by J. M. Scott and H. A. Coyle, as attesting witnesses; and it was moved the Court that same be admitted to probate and record and it appearing to the Court from the testimony of J. M. Scott and H. A. Coyle, the attesting witnesses, as follows:

State of Tennessee,

Davidson County, Davidson County Court, September Term, 1918.

Personally appearing before me, Romans Hailey, Clerk of the County Court of said County, J. M. Scott and H. A. Coyle, the subscribed witnesses to the will of Jns. Howe Peyton, deceased, dated March 17, 1917, who, being first duly qualified according to law, did depose and say that they were present, saw and heard the testator, Jns. Howe Peyton, sign, publish and declare the same to be his last will and testament, and further that he was at the time of signing the same, of sound mind and disposing memory, and further that they signed as such witnesses, at the request of the testator, in his presence, and in the presence of each other.

J. M. Scott.

H. A. Coyle.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this the 19th day of Sept. 1918.

Romans Hailey, Clerk.

And it further appearing to the Court that the said Jns. Howe Peyton lately died in Davidson County, Tennessee, that his usual place of residence at the time of his death, was in said County, it was so adjudged; and it is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that said instrument is the whole, true and last will and testament of the said Jns. Howe Peyton, deceased, and the Clerk is directed to file and record the same as such.

Whereupon C. P. Peyton, brother of Jns. Howe Peyton, deceased, this day appeared in open court and qualified as administrator with the will annexed on said estate, and gave bond in the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars, with Elizabeth M. Peyton and Sallie R. Peyton, as sureties thereon, which bond was approved by the Court and the said C. P. Peyton was qualified according to law. It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court that letters of administration with the will annexed issue to the said C. P. Peyton.

my said executor to sell or otherwise dispose of my real estate at public or private sale wherein his judgement such disposition is for the best interest of my estate or any portion thereof and no purchaser of my real estate or any portion thereof shall be required to see to the application of the purchase money thereof.

Fifth Item: I direct my executor to safely invest the net proceeds of the one half of my estate devised to my daughter for her life, and to change the investments from time to time during her life as to him may seem proper, but I wish my said executor to consult with my said daughter before making or changing such investment, and the income from such investments shall be paid over to her without any charge for commissions.

Sixth Item: Until my real estate is disposed of, I direct my executor to take possession of the same, pay the taxes and insurance on the same, and to lease such real estate for such terms as he may deem best for my estate.

Seventh Item: My son whom I have made my executor is in the United States Navy and at the time of my death may be absent from the United States, in that event until his return and qualification I request my friend St. Geo. R. Fitzhugh to do what ever in his judgement may be necessary to preserve my property until the return of my son.

Eighth Item: I direct my executor to set apart and invest a fund, the income from which will be adequate to take care of my lot in the City Cemetery here and my wife's grave in the Catholic Cemetery in Richmond.

Terrance M. Cracken.

The undersigned here by certify that Terrance M. Cracken, whose name is signed to the foregoing will signed his name to said paper in our presence we being present together at the same time, and in our presence we being present together at the same time do acknowledge said paper to be his last will and testament and requested us to attest the same as subscribing witnesses.

Given under our hand, this 31st. Nov. 1912.

This is my last will and this to show that what I have got is to stand just like I have left it and there aint any one has got to bother my business for I have done this my self iff there is any debt to pay there is some thing left to pay them sell across or horse or the mashine and the Boye can do this for their mother but she has to have the full control of the whole thing as long as she is my widow and as soon as she aint my widow she is out and the children has the control of the place and at her death Emmie has got to have the house and get around the house for her home for she is crippled and she has got to have some where to stay and the rest can do as they like and iff they want to sell after their mother is gone they can and then divided to suit them selves but Emmie has to keep here as long as she lives and iff she wants some of the Boyes to stay with her they can and that is left to her and the house that Jack is in dont belong to Emmie

 February 25th, 1919.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of (Mrs.) Eliza P. Fox, deceased, dated November 20th, 1918, was this day produced before me in the Clerk's Office of said Court by R. H. Kime, the Executor therein named, and was proved according to law by the oath of Mattie L. Hale, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, Mary E. Gaskins, the other subscribing witness, being now out of this state, the said Mattie L. Hale, testifying under oath that the testatrix signed and acknowledged the said paper in her presence and in the presence of Mary E. Gaskins, the other subscribing witness, all three being present at the same time, and thereupon it is ordered that the said writing be, and the same is hereby probated and admitted to record as and for the true last will and testament of the said Eliza P. Fox, deceased.

And, on motion of R. H. Kime, named in said paper as Executor, he is permitted to qualify as such. Whereupon the said R. H. Kime, who made oath thereto, and having entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) with the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, as surety, conditioned according to law, certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate of the will of the said Eliza P. Fox, deceased in due form.

And, on the motion of R. H. Kime, Executor, it is ordered that A. B. Campbell, E. C. Noell, J. E. Reid, E. L. Morris and John Freeman, or any three of them, being first duly sworn for the purpose, do truly and justly appraise such of the goods and chattels of Eliza P. Fox, deceased, as may be produced to them, and return their appraisement under their hands as the law directs.
