

Peter Kefauver I, Peter Kefauver of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills which have been made by me at any other time.

First: I desire that all my children or their heirs, to wit: George Kefauver's heirs, John Kefauver, Mary Haff, Lucinda Haff, Elizabeth Sizer & Eva George heirs, shall all share alike in my estate no difference whatever being made, in any of my children except what shall hereafter be named.

I will and bequeath to my daughter Catherine Richardson in the State of Missouri one thousand dollars, if she should survive me, but if dead then it is to go to her heirs.

It is my desire that my beloved wife Sarah Kefauver shall have the house and surrounding lots if she desires it as long as she is my widow and the interest in Two Thousand dollars per year for her support, and to do as she pleases with any surplus of interest that may be left from year to year. The said Two thousand dollars to be left in the hands of my Executors to be bequests named.

I desire that all my personal property of every description shall be sold and turned into money to be divided among my children as above named.

I have given to John Kefauver and D. H. Haff each Two thousand dollars in the sale of my land which they bought of me, and for which they must account for to other legatees, without interest.

Lastly, I make and appoint my son John Kefauver, D. H. Haff, & Gnat Haff my Executor of this my last will and testament.
