Reuben Bryant, I Reuben Bryant in the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this troublous life do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament - That is to say I direct all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as possible out of the first monies that shall come into the hands of my Personal Representative from any portion of my Estate.

I give and bequeath unto Sarah Mason all my Real and Personal Estate of every description which I may die seized and possessed of - That is to say the Land and premises on which I now live and also all my house-hold and Kitchen furniture, and to effectuate this my intention fully I do hereby vest in the said Sarah Mason full power and authority to dispose of all the above named property or any other interest unto which I may die seized or possessed as she may think proper in as full a manner as I could myself do if living.

And do hereby make ordain constitute and appoint my friend George Hartman my Executor of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made.

In witness whereof, the said Reuben Bryant have to this my last Will and Testament set my hand and seal this 21st day of May 1867.

Reuben Bryant Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Reuben Bryant as for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the said Testator and in the presence of each other.
Test James Johnston
W. McDonald

At Roanoke County Court, March Term 1868 -

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Reuben Bryant deceased was this day produced in Court and James Johnston one of the subscribing witnesses thereto was sworn and examined and his evidence put in writing which is filed with the said paper and made part of the record in this case. And William McDermid the other subscribing witness to said paper not appearing in Court, it is ordered that he be summoned to appear here on the first day of the next term of the Court to be examined as a witness touching the admission of the said paper to probate as the last Will and Testament of the said Reuben Bryant deceased.

And at Roanoke County Court, August Term 1868.

William McDermid one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Reuben Bryant deceased, who was summoned to appear here to be examined as a witness touching the admission of the said paper to probate as the last Will and Testament of the said Reuben Bryant deceased, this day appeared in Court, was sworn, examined, and his evidence was put in writing and filed with the said paper and made part of the record in this case. And on consideration of the evidence of the two subscribing witnesses filed in this case, it is the opinion of the Court that the said Reuben Bryant died at the time of executing the writing aforesaid dated the 21st day of May 1867, out of sound and disposing mind and memory, and that he was under no undue influence, and, it is therefore ordered that the said writing be recorded as the last Will and Testament of the said Reuben Bryant deceased.

Malinda Shiffey

I Malinda Shiffey, of Roanoke County, Virginia, do make the following as my last Will and Testament.

First, I direct that all of my just debts be paid. Second, It is my will that my mother, Suky Cowin, shall have the use of my House & Lot for a home during her life time if she chooses to live in the house, and I wish her to decide within three months after my decease, whether she will make it her home. If she does not decide within that time to use & occupy the premises as a home or otherwise at the decease of my said mother it is my will that the house & lot together with all my property of every kind be sold and to this end I hereby authorize and empower my Executor herein after named to sell and make conveyance of the said House and Lot - and the proceeds of the sale of my property I wish to be turned out for the benefit of my three children - viz: Ellen, Henry and Alexander and in the distribution of the said proceeds, it is my wish that my daughter Ellen shall have one hundred dollars more than her brothers. I further direct that Ellen's share shall be paid to her when she is married, and should she not marry, when she is twenty one years old - and should she marry, I wish her part to be settled upon her and her children.

As my brother Peter has kindly offered to take care of my children, it is my wish that they shall go to him, and I am thankful to him for his offer Kindly.

I hereby nominate and appoint Mr Joshua R. C. Brown of Salem as my Executor.

Witness my hand and seal this 5th day of December 1860.
