Robt. S. Loyd.

I, Robert S. Loyd, of the County of Roanoke in the State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and recognizing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do make this my last-will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

I direct that my body shall be given a decent and Christian burial.

I also direct that all my just debts if any shall be paid, after which all my property, both real and personal shall become the property of my wife, Finita Loyd, to be under her control and management; and she to receive the income and profits therefrom, during her natural life, or as long as she shall remain my widow. And she shall have authority to collect all debts due me, and to apply the same, as well as all money in my possession at the time of my death, to her own use, and also to sell, or otherwise dispose of any of the personal property I leave to her. And after her death or remarriage, all my real estate, and such personal property as may remain, shall be equally divided among my children Sarah Coker, J. E. Loyd, R. L. Loyd, J. H. Loyd, Sophia Loyd, Nancy P. Richardson, Zilla A. Richardson and Lillie Lockett, and the children of my deceased daughter, Jennie Lind Nimmo shall receive their mothers one ninth interest in my estate. The said property may be divided, or sold and the proceeds divided among those entitled thereto as they may elect.

I direct that in case any of my children now living shall die, before receiving his or her share of my estate, leaving no living heir, then such share shall be equally divided among those entitled thereto, and if any shall die leaving living heirs, then said share shall pass to the heirs of said decedent; it being my intention that all my children shall share equally in the distribution of my estate, the children of such as may be deceased to receive the share of their respective father or mother as the case may be.

I hereby appoint R. L. Loyd and T. D. Lockett, executors of this my last-will and testament, with no power to act as such until after the death, or re-marriage of my said wife.

In testimony whereof I sign and seal this instrument in the presence of witnesses, this 24th day of November A. D. 1899

no. B. M. McLung

Know all men by these presents, that I, John B. McLung of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, do make this my last will and Testament.

I devise, and will, that after my death, my body shall be decently buried, in the burying ground, at my present home (which said burying ground, shall be enclosed with a permanent enclosure) and there shall be erected over my remains, and over the remains of my departed wife - if the same is not done before my death - a monument of granite or marble comfortable with my estate; that my estate real and personal shall be divided among my five grand children; children of my lamented daughter, Missouri St-Clair - nee McLung - as follows: To Julia St-Clair I devise one hundred and five acres of land; that portion of my land which I first purchased of Dr Albert B. Read, to Lady Bell Jones - nee St-Clair - I devise the home house and buildings together with fifty acres of land adjacent thereto, which said fifty acres of land adjacent thereto, which said fifty acres of land, adjoins those I herein devise to my grand daughter Julia, from the gate west of the barn on the hill, as far as the Norfolk and Western Rail ways right of way; thence with the Norfolk and Western Rail ways right of way as it runs eastwardly to my boundary line; thence with my boundary line as it runs towards the old Samuel H. Wood track - as far as may be necessary to complete the fifty acres. The residue of my land - some two hundred and seventy nine acres more or less, to be equally divided between my three other grand children, Billy Joe St-Clair, Thomas S. St-Clair and Robt S. St-Clair.

I desire that my personal property of every kind shall be disposed of as follows: from the devise and bequest, to my grand son Billy Joe St-Clair, shall be deducted five hundred dollars, which I make
