

At Roanoke County Court, April Term 1855.

The last Will and Testament of Lindsey Rucker deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law, by the oaths of William Hix and James E. Mayo subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court

Teste

Wm. McCauley Clerk

Martha M. Pritchard. On the name of God, Amen! I Martha M. Pritchard of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of feeble health, and conscious of the brevity of human life, but being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me at anytime heretofore made.

It is my will to make the following disposition of my worldly estate

(1) I direct that the place upon which I now live be divided equally among my body-heirs, five in number, as following - Mary, Robert, Thomas, Rose and William.

(2) I also direct, that my heirs, hereinbefore named, have all my personal property.

Witness my hand and seal the 13 day of April One thousand, eight hundred and eighty three

Witnesses

Test John Barst

Alexander P. Smith

Martha M. ^{her} Pritchard ^{mark.} Seal

At Roanoke County Court, May Term 1855.

The last Will and Testament of Martha M. Pritchard deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law, by the oath of John Barst, the surviving subscribing witness thereto, who also testified that the signature of Alexander P. Smith, the other subscribing witness to said Will is the genuine signature of said Alexander P. Smith, and thereupon the said Will is admitted to probate.

A Copy from the records of Court.

Teste

Wm. McCauley Clerk

Salome Duckwiler. To all whom it may concern. This is my last will and testament concerning my individual property. I Salome Duckwiler do this 10th day of January 1851 will & bequeath to James M. Owen & his heirs the following named property forever in the presence of N. C. Keatcher & Robert Wilson 1 Cupboard & all its contents, one safe & all of its contents, two round Tables, one set of Chairs, one bed & Bed-clothes, one clock & all the farming implements, One window curtains & the toilets to the tables, One cutting box, The gearing for the horses & chains, One mirrors, one small table

Witnesses -

N. C. Keatcher
Robert X Wilson

Salome Duckwiler

At Roanoke County Court July Term 1885. ✓

The last Will and Testament of Salome Duckwiler deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of H. C. Hatcher and Robert Wilson, subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon it is ordered that the said Will be recorded.

A Copy from the records of Court.

Date

Wm. McCauley, Clerk

John Wertz. On the name of God Amen I John Wertz, of Roanoke County and State of Virginia being Old and Infirm but of sound and perfect mind and memory and Considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof do make And Appoint this my last will and testament in the manner and form following — to wit =

First and principally I commit my soul to God, in humble hopes of its future happiness. And my Body to the Earth to be buried in decent Christian burial = Secondly = I will and bequeath unto my son Kiles W. Wertz the remainder down of a tract or parcel of land known as the Old Levi Hays tract of Land = Thirdly = I will and bequeath unto my two daughters Louisa Shaver and Sarah Martin, A small tract or parcel of land to be equally divided between them known as a part of the Craft "Lands" joining the Old Hays tract Elijah Poage & others. I have made my son Calvin P. Wertz, Equal to my other heirs by decding to him all my personal property, "Whatever I may have"

On testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 9th day of February = One thousand Eight hundred & Eighty Three = Signed Sealed Acknowledged. —

In presence of
Samuel W. Henry
James H. Kiles
Elijah Poage,

~~~~~

John <sup>his</sup> Wertz <sup>mark</sup> Seal

At Roanoke County Court November Term 1885. ✓

The last Will and Testament of John Wertz deceased, was this day produced in Court, and proved according to law by the oaths of Elijah Poage and Samuel W. Henry, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A Copy from the records of Court.

Date

Wm. McCauley Clerk

