Charles Carney In the name of God amen; I Charles Carney knowing that it is appointed to man to die, and being of feeble health as to body, but of sound and disanimating mind make this my last Will & Testament, revoking all others by me made. It is my wish for my days to be kept together and not divided, until the death of my beloved wife Susan that they all live & rest it together. I also wish about one third of the cleared land kept in clover or grass & plentifully supplied with plaster. If it be thought necessary to sell any of the surplus property it can be done as may suit themselves. I also wish the house situated on the road to be weatherboarded & fitted up in a proper manner I also wish all the buildings to be kept in good repair. I have given to my daughter Anna Hornack for part that may be coming to her & to all my children except Anna Hornack who have received any thing from me the same must be considered as a part of what they are to receive making all equal. My son William will have to leave the house, he now lives in at next Christmas, and lastly I appoint my son David Carney & my lawful son, Robt. C. Jones, my Executors, with full power to manage & rent as they may see proper, having full confidence in the integrity and honesty of them, both in my wish they be not held to security by the Court, there is not to be a waste of timber nor none sold off the place, nor shall any one renting keep too much stock so as to impoverish the land all of which my Executors will strictly attend to. The land belonging to Capt. David Lish lying about my barn ought to belong to this place I therefore wish my Executors if they can, purchase the same at a fair price to do so. The part coming to my daughter Eliza Pace I wish she give it to her & her heirs and wish my Executors to see it is not taken from her & her children, that they receive the benefit therefrom, subscribed this the 5th day of July 1853, In my own hands writing
