

Thos. F. Koolsey. In the name of God, Amen.

I Thomas F. Koolsey, of Roanoke County, Va., being of sound mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament. First- I direct- that my just- debts, if any I owe, at the time of my death- be paid, by my executor, herein after named, and that my body be given a decent Christian burial, and the expence of the same be paid out of my estate.

Secondly, I hereby give and bequeath to my beloved wife my entire estate both real and personal, in fee simple to do as she pleaseth with.

Thirdly, I hereby nominate and appoint my wife Landonia Koolsey my sole executor, to carry out the above provisions of this, my last will, and testament; and it is my request that she be allowed to qualify without giving security therefor.

Given under my hand and seal this 22nd day of Jan 1892

Attest

Thos. F. Koolsey L. S.

W. W. Brand

S. J. Lemon

At Roanoke County Court- March 21st 1892.

The last will and Testament of Dr Thos. F. Koolsey was this day produced in Court- and proved, according to law, by the oath of W. W. Brand, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is therefore ordered to be recorded.

And, ^{on motion of} Mrs L. A. Koolsey, widow and devisee of the decedent, the Executor, named in the said will, having refused to take upon herself the burden of the execution thereof, E. H. Koolsey is appointed Administrator with the will annexed of the estate of said decedent, and therefore the said E. H. Koolsey appeared in Court- and having made oath according to law, and together with Mrs L. A. Koolsey, his security, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of ($400.00) Four Hundred Dollars, conditioned as the law directs, certificate is granted the said E. H. Koolsey for obtaining letters of administration on said decedent's estate with the will annexed in due form.
