

James O. Tyler.

I, James O. Tyler, considering the uncertainty of life, and being weak of body, but sound and disposing in mind, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made,

First, I desire that my body be decently buried, without needless expense, in a manner corresponding to my estate and my situation in life.
Second, I direct that my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as can conveniently be done.

Thirdly, I give to my beloved wife, Mary Armistead Tyler, in testimony of my affection for her all my property, both real and personal to be used by her for her maintenance and support during the remainder of her natural life; she may use both the interest and principal of all my property for her maintenance, should it be necessary.

Fourthly, If my said wife should die leaving any balance of my said estate unused, then I will it in fee to my three children, J. Arthur Tyler, Mrs. J. W. Morgan, and Mrs. W. H. Langston, to be divided equally between them.

Fifthly, I make my beloved wife my sole executor under this my last will and testament; and it is my desire that she act without giving security.

Witness my hand, which I have set to this my will, this 26 day of April 1898.
