

which is now in the brick room and was made for me by James Day and the bedding therewith, I give and bequeath to my daughter Matilda Edington in addition to the provisions of said will. I also desire and direct that the colored girls, Prissy and Caroline which I gave to my daughters Matilda Edington and Eliza Wood, respectively, in ~~the~~ days of slavery shall not be charged to my said daughters, nor their children, nor any ~~amount~~ whatever taken of said colored girls in the execution of my said will and testament.

Abraham Vinyard.
~~and his~~ Codicil to the Will of Abraham Vinyard, was read to him and subscribed to by him in our presence we being in the presence of each other and we at the request of the testator and in his presence hereunto signed our names as witnesses heret with the place of our residences opposite each of our names. The interlineation descriptive of the bedstead and bedding was inserted at the request of said testator and before the signing of the same.

Sept. 28th 1886.

W.W. Berkeley Roanoke Co. Va.
M. P. Preston

At Roanoke County Court, March Term 1889.

The last Will and Testament of Abraham Vinyard and the Codicil thereto, was this day produced in Court and proven according to law, by the oaths of W.W. Berkeley and M. P. Preston the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon the said Will is admitted to Probate.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste:

P.H. McCaull, Clerk.

Thomas C. Wolfenden. In the name of God, Amen.

I Thomas C. Wolfenden of the Town of Salem County of Roanoke State of Virginia being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this as my last will & testament. After the payment of all my just debts I devise all my estate whether real personal or mixed to my beloved wife Mary S. Wolfenden, having the utmost confidence in her love and affection for our children and knowing that she will do all things necessary for their ~~own~~ comfort, education and support. ~~2^{ndly}~~ I have an Insurance policy on my life for the benefit of my wife and children I desire that my said wife qualify as Guardian of my children and I hereby appoint her as such Guardian and desire that she qualify as such without giving security therefor.

3^{rdly} I desire that there be no appraisement of my estate, and I hereby appoint my wife as Executrix of this my last will & testament without being required to give security as such Executrix.

Witness my hand & seal this the 5th day of July 1889.

Thos C. Wolfenden (seal)

1000
Signed by the testator in our presence both being present at the same time, and subscribed by us as witnesses in the presence of said testator and acknowledged by him as his will.

R. H. Logan

J. H. Webber

Signed by the testator in our presence both being present at the same time, and subscribed by us as witnesses in the presence of said testator and acknowledged by him as his will.

R. H. Logan

J. H. Webber

At Roanoke County Court, August Term 1889.

The last Will and Testament of Thomas C. Wolfenden deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved by the oaths of R. H. Logan and J. H. Webber subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court:

Teste M. McCauley Clerk.

McKerry. I Mary M. McKerry (of the County of Roanoke (State of Virginia) being of sound mind, and know the uncertainty of life and the certainty of Death, do make this my last Will, as follows, to wit:

I give and devise unto ~~unto~~ my Brother James D. McKerry all of my real Estate, being one half Interest in a tract or parcel of land, containing one hundred and twenty five (125) acres, situate on the head waters of Catawba, County of Roanoke aforesaid State.

In witness whereof, I have signed and sealed and published, and declared this instrument as my last will + testament, this 1st day of June 1889.

Mary M. McKerry. ^{Emm} ^{Equal}

The said Mary M. McKerry, signed and sealed the within or foregoing instrument, and published and declared the same as and for her last Will, and we, at her request, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto written our names as subscribing witnesses, this 1st day of June 1889.

J. M. Gordon

J. W. Doering

John S. Bennett

Witnesses.

At Roanoke County Court, August Term 1889.

The last Will and Testament of Mary M. McKerry deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of John M. Gordon and John S. Bennett subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court

Teste

M. McCauley Clerk