

my storehouse and dwelling and lot at Cave Spring and lot on the hill of about two acres adjoining the Phelps lot and S H Le Greenwoods land & others during her natural life and after her death to the heirs of her body I will and bequeath to my daughter Alice J Whitescarver during her natural life time and to the heirs of her body after her death my house and lot in Salem on academy street now occupied by B Whitescarver I will and bequeath to Cary Taylor three hundred dollars to be paid to his mother to be used in educating him And the remainder of my estate of every description to be equally divided between my two daughters Lora B. Airhart and Alice J Whitescarver I appoint John M Airhart and Frank W Whitescarver my executors to carry this my last will into effect and no security to be required of them Witness my hand and seal this 10th day of July 1895

Witness

J. C. Dublett Seal

S H Le Greenwood
D. J. Blackwell

Old Roanoke County Court, March Term, 1896.

The last Will and Testament of J. C. Dublett, deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law, by the oaths of D. J. Blackwell and S. H. Le Greenwood, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon ordered to be recorded.

And on motion of F. W. Whitescarver and J. W. Airhart, the executors therein named, and who made oath thereto, no security being required by the said Will, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of six thousand dollars, conditioned according to law, certificate is granted them for obtaining a probate of said Will in due form.

A copy from the records of Court.

A Copy = True:

Whitiffin, Clerk.

Virginia Coleman

This 7th day of March 1896, I, Virginia Coleman, do make this my last will and testament

I give to my daughter, Bell Hunt, all my property, real and personal, for her use and enjoyment during her natural life and then to descend to her children in equal proportions, to wit: the land on which I now reside, two acres, more or less, and adjoining the lands of Hollins Institute, with all the appurtenances thereto, all household and kitchen furniture and all other personal property in my possession at my death, I desire and do direct that my grandson Montgomery Brown, shall make his home with my daughter, Belle Hunt, aforesaid, when not off on business and that she will allow him to do so on such terms as he and she may mutually agree upon.

Virginia ^{her} Coleman
mark

The will of Virginia Coleman given in this paper was duly signed in our presence after she had been fully informed as to its provisions.

William H. Pleasant
Charles H. Locke.

At Roanoke County Court April Term 1896.

The last Will and Testament of Virginia Coleman deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law, by the oaths of Wm H Pleasant and Charles H. Locke, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste;

W. Griffin, Clerk.

Harriet D. Huff.

In the name of God, Amen.

I Harriet D. Huff, do make and publish this my last will as follows.

First, I appoint G. Jones Ligon my executor.

Second, I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and the costs of suitable Tomb stones to be erected over my grave be paid out of the first money that comes into my executors hands from my estate.

Third All the residue of my estate, both real and personal, I give to my son M. F. Huff, for the period of his natural life, and at his death to any child, or children born to him in lawful wedlock in fee, but in the event my said son should die leaving no such child or children, then and in that event I devise the said estate to the following named persons and in the proportions following. One fourth to Lucy Strickler wife of John H. Strickler, one ^{other} fourth to Emily Littrell, wife of John Littrell, and the remaining one half to be equally divided between James Owens, John Owens, Joseph Owens sons of my deceased sister Emily Emma Royd, grand daughter of my said sister, Henry Stevens and John Stevens sons of my deceased sister Mary.