Probate of Will

State of North Carolina

Mecklenburg County }^{ss} In the Superior Court before the Clerk.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of W.A. Barrier deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Charles H. Duls the Executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said W.A. Barrier was proven by the oath and examination of George S. Krieger and C.A. Mischenheimer the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of W.A. Barrier, deceased, that the said W.A. Barrier in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name, at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 4 day of October 1890.

And the deponent further saith, that the said W.A. Barrier the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, and of each other. Also this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said W.A. Barrier was sound of mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Swearingly sworn and subscribed
this 9 day of October 1890, before me

W^m M^r Cauley Clerk.

A. W. D. Smith. In the name of God, Amen, I, A. W. D. Smith of the County of Roanoke Va, do make this my last will and testament as follows:

1. First: I desire that my body may decently buried, without needless expense, in a manner corresponding to my estate and my situation in life.
2. Secondly: I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same.
3. Thirdly, I give to my beloved wife, Rosa W. Smith in testimony of my affection for her the sum of Ten thousand dollars, ($10000⁰⁰) to be preferred to any of the devises and legacies hereinafter contained, with this proviso however, that said sum of Ten thousand dollars is, upon the death of the said Rosa W. Smith, to go to my executors to be herein-after named, to be held by them on the trust as shall be hereinafter set forth.
4. Fourthly I give devise and bequeath to my Executors to be herein-after named, all the residue of my estate real & personal, But upon trust nevertheless, that ~~that~~ they shall apply all proceeds arising from my said estate in manner following: that is to say, they shall invest the said moneys in some safe and interest bearing stocks, bonds or notes or in Real Estate, taking care in their investments to regard safety as an indispensible element and condition, and to hold such stocks bonds notes or Real Estate as the case may be, with interest dividends or profits to accrue thereon for and upon the several uses and purposes hereinafter expressed, that is to say upon trust to pay the said interest, dividends or profits arising from such investments as and when they shall be received, to my three children James S. Smith, Mary E. Smith and John S. Smith in equal shares, for and during the term of their natural lives.

And upon the marriage of John S. Smith upon the trust to invest one-third of my said estate in Real Estate and to convey the same to his wife and the heirs of her body by the said John S. Smith.

And upon the marriage of Mary E. Smith upon the trust to invest one-third of my said estate in Real Estate and to
