Mary A. R. Barnett.

Salem, Roanoke Co. Virginia.

Nov. 7th 1891. At Roanoke County Court, July Term, 1891.

A writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mrs. Mary A. R. Barnett, deceased, was produced in Court, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, Robert H. Logan and W. W. Ballard were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with testator's hand-writing, and verily believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of Mrs. Mary A. R. Barnett, deceased.

Whitfield Goff. In the name of God, amen. I Whitfield Goff of Roanoke County State of Virginia do make this my last will and testament as follows, (that is to say): My desire is, to be buried with as little expense as decency will permit and that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be. I give to George Alice Goff the lot of land upon which I now reside being one acre situate, lying and being in the County of Roanoke, with its appurtenances for and during her life. And from and after her decease, I give and devise the same to her children, forever. And I give all my household goods and furniture and utensils and all personal property of every description unto the said George Alice Goff for her own use.

And I nominate and appoint the said George Alice Goff executrix of this my last will and testament and I request and direct that no security be required of me.

In witness whereof, I, the said testator Whitfield Goff have hereunto set my hand and seal this 24 day of January 1891.

Whitfield Goff Seal

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator (Whitfield Goff) as and for his last will and testament in presence of us, who in his presence at his request and in presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

John F. Mitchell In the name of God. Amen.

I John Fagwell Mitchell, of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, but in delicate health, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made.

1st. I desire that my funeral expenses and all just debts, which I may owe, be paid out of my estate.

2nd. I devise and bequeath to my three children Jacob Booker, Matthew D., and Gertrude Mitchell all my property, both real and personal. My real estate, which consists of one lot in the town of Salem, on _____ street, containing $2\frac{1}{4}$ acres, which I desire to be divided into three lots of equal size; the first lot, after such division has been made, and which adjoins the lot now owned by Edmund Robinson, I desire my son Matthew D. to have, the next and middle lot I give to my son Jacob Booker, and the third lot to my daughter Gertrude. I desire that all three of my children have access to the Spring located on the property above described. My personal property, I desire to be equally divided between my three children above named.

3rd. I nominate and appoint J. F. Crattie Executor of this Will.

Witness my hand this 20th day of June 1891.
