Roanoke, Co, Oct. 28th '82

Roanoke County State of Virginia. This my last will and testament revoking all others up to this date, I desire my nephew Wm. P. Roberts to manage my business as he has done before for me and all business done by him shall be binding as if done by myself. I desire at my nephew Wm. P. Roberts death that my grand-nephew John S. Roberts have two horses a wagon and harness, and all farming utensils necessary to farm with. I desire my nephew Wm. P. Roberts to use any part of my estate for the benefit of my grand niece Sue J. Roberts.

It is not my wish that my estate shall be appraised that my nephew Wm. P. Roberts take charge of it and settle all my just debts. I leave my nephew Wm. P. Roberts my administrator without any security; I desire at the death of my nephew Wm. P. Roberts that what shall be left of my estate go to his children except what has already been mentioned in my will. I leave nothing to my brothers children I have already given them all I intend to give them
