

to be held by my said husband, and the rents and profits thereof to be used and enjoyed by him, during his natural life.

Third. At the death of my said husband, I give and bequeath the said store-house at lot to my son William E. Brown, to be held by him, and the rents and profits thereof to be used and enjoyed by him, during his natural life, and at his death to revert to his children, share and share alike.

Fourth. At the death of my said husband, I give and bequeath the tract of land above mentioned containing $7\frac{3}{4}$ acres to my daughter Mary Lou Brown to be held, used, enjoyed and disposed of by her as she may desire.

Witness my hand and seal this 14th day of December 1883.

Signed, sealed and acknowledged by Mrs. Mary Jane Brown as her last Will and Testament in our presence, and we subscribe our names hereto
as witnesses at the request of the testator in her presence and in the presence of each other.

J. Bom

Wm McCauley

Mary J. Brown (initials)

At Roanoke County Court June Term 1895.

The last Will and Testament of Mary J. Brown deceased, was this day produced in Court and found according to law by Wm McCauley, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and it appearing that J. Bom the other subscribing witness to the said Will has departed this life, since the execution of said will and before the same was produced in Court, Wm McCauley, here in Court testified on oath that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. Bom, and verily believes that the signature of the said J. Bom thereto subscribed as a witness to said Will, is wholly in the handwriting of the said J. Bom. Whereupon, the said will is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court

Date:

H. Griffin, Clerk.

J. Bom

In the name of God, Amen
I Jubelom Bom of Salem Roanoke County Va knowing the uncertainty of life and being now of sound mind make this my last Will and Testament as follows I leave and bequeath to my son James D. Bom my home place in the Town of Salem dwelling & business House he in consideration thereof is to take care of his mother during her natural life and in the case of the death of James D. Boom before that of his mother it shall be hers to hold and use during her life time then to be equally divided among my children that may be living at that time in addition to my wife having her home in the house it is my desire that she shall be paid out of the business known as J. Boom & Sons, one hundred dollars per year during her life time, J. R. Boom & Eugene Boom having ~~having~~ been paid Six Hundred Dollars each out of my Estate it is my will unless done in my life time that my other children be made equal by being paid like aunts of Six Hundred Dollars each namely Florence Snell Emeline Boom Walter J. Boom John M^c. Boom I appoint J. R. Boom & James D. Boom Executors of this my will

411

April 22nd 1885-

Witness

Philip Reed.

Reuben Boom

At Roanoke County Court June Term 1895.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of J. Boom deceased was this day produced in Court by Thomas R. Boom, one of the executors therein named, and there being no subscribing witness thereto except Philip Reed who is now dead W. S. Oakley, was sworn and deposed that he is well acquainted with the Testator's handwriting, and verily believes the said handwriting and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the Testator's own hand.

Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded, as the true last will and testament of the said J. Boom deceased.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste:

W. Griffin, Clerk.

Sarah Kefauver. I Sarah Kefauver of the County of Roanoke in the State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and recognizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make this my last will and testament.

In order to compensate, to some extent my Daughter, Susan C. Kefauver for her long and continuous care and attention to me, in my declining years, I give and bequeath to her, all my personal property of every description, to have, hold and dispose of as she may desire.

In testimony whereof I hereunto affix my hand and seal this 6th day of February A.D. 1894.

Witnessed by

D. E. Kefauver

D. P. Richardson

Sarah Kefauver her mark