

I do hereby give and bequeath unto my daughter Margaret Evans five shillings and no more

I do hereby give and bequeath unto my daughter Margaret Evans five shillings and no more

I do hereby give and bequeath unto my daughter Margaret Evans five shillings and no more

I do hereby give and bequeath unto my daughter Margaret Evans five shillings and no more

I do hereby give and bequeath unto my son John Pichey fifty acres of my land lying between the river and the sea in a spring at a cow and calf

I do hereby give and bequeath to my beloved wife Ann my dwelling house and a comfortable living to be provided for her off my plantation during the rest of her life and my house hold furniture and my shop to be divided between her and my daughter Ann at her own pleasure and bequeath to my son John ten acres of land and my shop to be divided between her and my daughter Ann at her

own pleasure and bequeath to my son John ten acres of land

and my shop to be divided between her and my daughter Ann at her

111 — plantation during her single life I am I give and bequeath to my son James Richey all and singular my estate rights and credits which I stand possess of at my decease after my said son shall have faithfully paid all and every of the above legacies agreeable to this my last will and testament my funeral expences and what ever just demands may be brought against my estate to him and his heirs forever and I do hereby constitute and appoint my said son James Richey my whole and sole executor of this my last will and testament recovering and disavowing all other will or Wills formerly by ^{me} made either by word or writing ratifying and confirming this to be my last will and testament In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal publishing and declaring this to be my last will and testament

In signed sealed published and 115

The
In en
the

declared in the presence of us

John M. Colloch

George Cummings

his James Richey L.S.

with

At a court held for Rockbridge County the third day of October 1797

The foregoing writing purporting the last will & testament of James Richey deceased was produced in court by James Richey executor therein named & proved by the oath of John M. Colloch

~~the said George Cummings writing which was ordered to be recorded~~ and on the motion of said executor who made oath according to law certificate is granted him for obtaining probate thereof in due form he having with John M. Colloch & Samuel Keys his Securis has entered into and acknowledged bond in the sum of three thousand dollars conditioned according to Law

Teste

Miner