Exand.

do hereby make this my last will and Testament in the following manner To wit. I give and bequeath to my son John Lyleman the wearing apparel (bedding excepted) that I may possess of at my decease. And whereas the Estate which I do bequeath amounts to about five hundred pounds which at present is in the hands of my son John Lyleman and to an amount of which he has given me his Bond. I do hereby of it in the following manner of the said legal interest of the sum of two hundred pounds to be paid to him as hereafter mentioned - The interest of one hundred pounds to be paid annually by my Executors to the said William Pyburn in such articles of money as the said Executors may think most necessary The remaining sum of one hundred pounds shall be put to interest and the interest arising thereon shall be retained in the hands of my Executors until it shall amount to one hundred pounds whereupon they shall be added to the two hundred and will then be added thereto in the whole to three hundred pounds which shall be ~~put~~ put to interest as aforesaid, which interest shall be paid annually to the said William Pyburn but after the decease of the said William Pyburn during his life - but after the decease of the said William the three hundred pounds mentioned in this bequest shall revert to the children of my son John who shall if living make the Division among his said children at such times and in any manner he may think proper - And in case the said John Seymour shall die without making such Division it shall in that case be equally divided among his said children or their lawfull Issue and should the said John's children die without receiving their dividend or having lawfull Issue my nearest relations shall be entitled to it.

I give and bequeath to my son John Seymour the whole of the remaining part of my Estate of inheritance nature it may be that I may be possessed of at my decease.

with this exception to this and the foregoing bequest and William Leyburn in case George Leyburn, (son of my Brother William who reside in Ireland should arrive in the United States my son John shall be bound to pay to each of my Brothers two sons above mentioned one years interest on the three hundred pounds bequeathed to him, and my Executors shall in like manner pay to each of them Forty dollars out of the interest bequeathed to my son William.

And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint James L Campbell of Lexington and my son John Leyburn and the Executors of my said son John to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament - and do hereby and Declared and ratify any Will and bequest which I may have made, otherwise than what is made by this Instrument — In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal the thirtieth day of

George Lytton Esq

I George Lytton of the County of North Devon and Shire do make and cause publish this Deed to my and Testament in the manner following To wit That in my last will and Testament I have given and bequeathed George Peyton and William Peyton sons of my brother William each the amount of one year's interest on the sum of Three hundred pounds bequeathed to my son John and the further sum of forty dollars each to be paid of the interest bequeathed to my son William to be paid to the said George Peyton and William Peyton when they should arrive in the United States, and whereas the said William has since departed this life in the Kingdom of Ireland, and the same no longer exists that induced me to make the aforesaid bequests to the said George Peyton, I do therefore order and declare that my will is, that so much of my last Will and Testament as directs the payment of any moneys to the said George Peyton & William Peyton sons of my brother William shall be void and of no effect, and my son John and my Executors are freely released from making such payment or any part thereof

And lastly it is my full desire that this my present and be annexed to and made a part of this my last will and Testaments to all intents and purposes. In Witness whereof

I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17 Day of April
