

In the name of God Amen, I John Tully Rockingham County and State of Virginia being weak in body but of sound in memory and understanding do hereby callung to mind the mortality of my body and uncertainty of how I may continue in this present world I do by these presents acknowledge this my last will and testament as following first I will my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it and my body to be buried in a Christian manner and that all my lawful debts be paid out of my personal Estate I will to my Eldest son John the place he now lives on together with all the improvements such a quantity as may be included from the lower part of my tract containing one hundred and nineteen acres approaching the bounty line to an agreed line made between him and his brother Sebastian by paying eighty pounds to his sisters to be equally divided among them all to be paid in six years
To my son Sebastian I will the place he now lives on with all the improvements thereof what ever quan-manner and that all my lawful debts be out of my personal Estate I will to my Eldest John the place he now lives on together with

all the improvements such a quantity as may
be included from the lower part of my tract
containing one hundred and nineteen acres approving the bounty line to an agreed line made between him and his brother Sebastian by paying
eighty pounds to his sisters to be equally divided
among them all to be paid in six years.

To my son Sebastian I will the place he now lives on with all the improvements thereof what ever quantity may be included in the agreed line made between him and his Brother John as before mention to a other agreed line made between him and his Brother Philip by paying forty pounds to his sisters to be Equally divided among them all and to be paid in six years. To my son Philip I will the place he now lives on that is my home from the agreed line made between David by paying One hundred pounds to his sisters to be equally divided among all to be paid in seven years, 4th to my son David I will the land he now lives on all contained between the agreed line made between him and his brother Philip into the line between my above mentioned tract of five hundred and nineteen Acres and Another tract of woodland containing 99 Acres and one half Acre of sand woodland opposite to his house at the place called the creek by paying fifteen pounds to his sisters to be equally divided among them all to be paid in six years, 5 And to my son Jacob I will my tract of woodland of 99 Acres,

And to My son George I will the place he now lives on on the other side of the river containing 93 Acres and in Case he should not hold said land each One of his Brothers are to pay to said

containing 99 acres and one half acre of sand
woodland opposite to his house at the place called the sack by paying fifteen pounds to his sisters to be equally divided among them all to be paid in six years, 5 And I ~~to~~ my son Jacob I will my tract of woodland of 99 acres,
And to My son George I will the place he now
lives on on the other side of the river containing 93 acres and in Case he should not hold said
land each One of his Brothers are to pay to said George fifteen pounds to be paid in five years, only Jacob to pay ^{only} seven pounds ten shillings but if he hold the land he shall pay thirty pounds to be equally divided among all his sisters and to be paid in six years and his brothers to pay the same they were to pay him in Case he should not hold the land to their sisters to be equally divided among them and that in six years. and as for all my moveable property

● Rockingham June Court 1806

The last will and testament of John Fuly decd. was presented in Court and proved by the oaths of two of the witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded, and the executor therein named having refused the execution thereof, On the motion of Reuben Fuly a commission with the will annexed of the said John Fuly decd. is granted him he having with security entered into and acknowledged and made oath thereon as the law directs.

Teste

L. Williams

Agreeable to an Order of the County Court of Rockingham to us directed we Isaac Reps David Harrison William Wolf being first sworn proceeded to appraise personal estate of Christopher Howard and and proceeded as follows to wit