John

Thomas Marshall 1870

In the name of God Amen I Peter Hook of the County of Rockford in the State of Illinois being of legal age (this 22nd day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy three) being sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory, therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, Do hereby make and declare this my last will and Testament, that is to say first and principally of that I give and commend my soul unto the hands of God that gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent manner at the discretion of my Executors, and in bequeathing such worldly Estate which with all I have I give to my wife I give Anna and to her heirs forever. I give and bequeath to my wife Anna that in the best place at my last will and funeral she will be buried and that I am dying and being weak and unable to perform my duties as President of the Board of Directors of the Bank of the City of New York, and I hereby give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Susan, all my real estate, personal property, and every right and claim which I have or may hereafter acquire, in and to the said Bank, and I hereby authorize her to execute and deliver such instruments as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this will, and I hereby declare that this will shall survive any other will or testament which I may make or execute at any time before the death of my body, and I hereby declare that this will shall be valid and binding upon me and my heirs, assigns, and executors, and I hereby declare that this will shall be the last and final expression of my wishes, and I hereby declare that this will shall be the last and final disposition of my estate, and I hereby declare that this will shall be the last and final disposition of my estate.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

For Exec. Gay

At a court held for Dunmore County on Tuesday June 27th 1770

The said Will and Testament of Peter Hooper was proved by the oath of William Webb & James Gay witnesses thereto sworn to by Cuthbert and Adam Smith, the Executors therein named and ordered to be Recorded, and on motion of the said Executors Petitate is granted them for obtaining a probat thereof due form giving security, whereupon they together with James Burchett their security entered into and acknowledged their bond for their due and faithful administration of the said Decedents Estate and performance of the duties imposed on them
