

Saylor

In the name God-ammen I Childred Saylor of the Southampton County, Virginia Wills 1772-1782 www.virginiapioneers.net parish at Saint Luke's Church in Southampton do make this my last will and testament to prevent any disputes that may arise about my estate after my death to be 1777 Done and signed at to my Cousin Charles Saylor and my brother John Saylor all being in writing and signed in the presence of my friend Saylor and his heirs forever 1777 do appoint my Brother, in law my last will and testament to my Wife and my children and that this is my last will 1770

Sealed and signed for what

Childred Saylor

deceased be the estate

Hark

to be his last will and testament in presence of all

John Saylor

who appeared at the Court and being taken before the Court entered in the County of Southampton as a Saylor against a writing purporting to be his last will and testament and that the Court do hereby certify that the said plain C. H. Saylor Court of the County of 1777 do hereby certify that the said and that he was in his usual state of mind

and that he was in his usual state of mind.

From the 1st to the 10th on Campbell's age and being first seen as about 1890 and later to the same place as the above reported

James McLaughlin

The Court held for the County of Southampton the 9th day of January 1877. His will was presented in Court by John May the executor thereof named and proved by the depositions of Henry Stinson and John Peterson the two witnesses thereto and to be recorded and on the motion of the said Caton who made oath according to law certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate thereof in due form giving security Saml Hall a