

Another part I give to my Grand Daughter Sally. I am On this part I give to my Grand Daughter Martha. I am On this part I give to my Grand son John. I am On this part I give to my Grand son Richard.

And that of either of these my Grand Children should survive them then I give to the said surviving Grand Child.

And I will of devise so that all the property I own from the sale of my Estate as directed in the above notation be as the direction of my Executors to be paid to the said surviving Grand Child, or given up into the hands of their Father's Guardians.

And I by law in testimony of all my Estate and property I do hereby make comply with that said direction and I do hereby make

And I do hereby appoint my son John to be my Executor and I do hereby make my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of said County, this 15th day of March 1780. and the said will was published & declared by the Testator to all his friends and neighbors present.

Sally Jewell's daughter of York County. Martha Jewell's daughter

At Court held for the County of Southampton the 12th day of April 1781 The within and last mentioned will of the said John Jewell was read and

And proved by the oath of Charles Jewell a Justice of the Peace for the County of the within and last mentioned will was read and

And proved by the oath of Charles Jewell a Justice of the Peace for the County of
the within and last mentioned will was read and

