And whereas William Dawson who has lived with me ever since and has been entrusted with the management of my business for some years which I find he has discharged with great fidelity therefore and for his kindness to me my Wife & I desire that my Executors out of my Estate will purchase for him a suit of mourning which I request he will accept of and wear in remembrance of me the price of which suit not exceed six or seven pounds, and it is my desire that my Grandson Larkin Smith may only have the use of my Smiths Tools three years after my wifes death and unless he would choose to purchase them at a reasonable price then I desire they may be equally divided amongst my Children
