In the Name of God amen I William Plunkett of the County of Hertfordshire being of a sound Mind and disposing Memory do hereby prepare at this time to make this my last will and testament in manner and form following

I myself It is my will and desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid

Item I bequeath to my beloved wife Mary all my estate both Real and personal during her Natural life or widowhood, except two thousand dollars, which I give and bequeath unto my daughter Lucy Leftwich to make her equal to the the land which I shall hereafter lend to my daughter Ann White, which said sum of two thousand dollars shall be paid to her at my death by executor out of the Money in hand or that which may be due me by bonds or otherwise

Item I lend to my daughter Ann White all my Land during her Natural life, and at her decease my will and desire is that the said land shall go to the children of the said Ann White to them and their heirs and assigns forever, but in case either of the said children should die before they arrive to lawful age or marry then the said land shall go to the survivor or survivors of them their heirs or assigns forever

Item my will and desire is that at the death of my aforesaid wife all my estate (the Land excepted) which I have lent my daughter Ann White I shall lend to my two daughters Lucy Leftwich and Ann White during their Natural lives, to be equally divided between them, and at their death my will and desire is that the children of my said two daughters shall inherit their in their proportions of the said estate

Lastly I constitute and appoint my beloved wife Mary Plunkett executing together with my friends Robert S. Coleman James M. Brew and John White executors of this my last will and testament In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of January in the year eighteen hundred and Six

In witness to the aforesaid facts, we have talked with Joseph Hornsby, his account of administration of the Estate of Edward Hornsby and which is stated on this Sheet, a balance of the charges in the account are properly supported by vouchers, and the greater part of these charges are so supported, and for sundry services Mrs Mary Hornsby is whom a Considerable part of the Estate was left, during her life by the said Edward Hornsby's will and as we think these reasonable we have allowed the said charges, we have allowed the account an extra commission, which we think little enough for his trouble in inventorying the Estate and for sitting and assisting it amongst the Legatees, Given under our hands this 5th of June 1807

In the Name of God Amen I William Robinson of the County of Spotsylvania, being sick and weak, but of sound and disposing memory, and knowing the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time it may happen, do make my will in the following manner First It is my will and desire that all, and I do hereby order that all my last debts and funeral charges be fully paid and satisfied by my executor hereafter named - I give to Negro Polly Five hundred Dollars to her and her two youngest children Salina, and Wallace - This I give to the said Polly and her two youngest children and their heirs forever in consideration of the said Pollys faithful services to me - she being a part of the estate of my late Brother John Robinson dec^d And that my executor pay the same to the said Polly and children or their legal representatives within twelve months after my death - Then all the residue of my estate both real personal or mixed of whatsoever nature or kind, it may be, I desire it may be kept together for the benefit of all my Brothers and Sisters children and the annual profits arising therefrom to be annually and equally divided amongst the whole of them or their legal representatives share and share alike, that the slaves of my estate be worked on their terms when on hand live, including the past purchase of Michael Robinson this

This part of my ~~estate~~ ^{estate} ~~estate~~ may be kept together forever for the purposes in this clause mentioned - (Except such parts thereof as may not yield immediate profit such as household and kitchen furniture &c) And lastly I do hereby appoint my friend John Stewart Esq (son of John) and my Nephew James Robinson, executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other Wills by me made - In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal this first day of December 1807.
