Test. W. Waller M^r

N.B. The several Obliterations of names in his Will, was inadvertent to be truly copied in this book, but for greater certainty I refer to the book to be compared with his writing for will, &c.

Test. W. Waller M^r

The court continued and held for Lancaster County, of May the 2nd A.D. 1759. At Samuel Battalay appeared and contested the validity of the will of the above mentioned Morley Battalay Deed as Eldest son & heir at law of the said Morley and offered his objections against the same, whereupon several witnesses were sworn & examined relating thereto, & council heard thereon, on consideration of the whole matter the court are of opinion, and do declare all those parts of the said writing which are not crossed, obliterated or erased be taken to be the will of the said Deed, and that the parts that are crossed, obliterated or erased be not taken to be part of his will. H.C.
