

In the name of God Amen John Calver

Surgeon in Stafford formerly apprentice to James Brown Surgeon apothecary & Burgis in Edinburgh for as much as I am at this time duly advised out in full strength & sense of memory & taking to mind the frailty of human make my will Testament in the following manner Inprimis my soul I recommend to God to God Almighty & my body to be Christianly buried in some Churchyard conform to the direction of my Executor as to my worldly Estate I dispose of in the following manner my Land upon Devils run in Prince William County being 492 acres which I bought of Jeffrey Johnston the said selling as follows Recorded in Prince William Court book I appoint to be sold by my Executor him to see for if wood be grower all debts due of money or tobacco or any other thing due to me whosoever the same shall be together with my debts left to be Every other thing that I have I appoint to be sold by my Executor & whosoever appoint the Hon^{ble} Mr. Alexander Scott to be my only Executor appointing my said Executor to pay my debts & to run the remaining time to my Aunt Mrs. Calver to the Care of Mr. William Calver & Mr. Thomas Dabney & Cravens all Wills formerly made by me Witness my hand & seal in Stafford County this 28th day of April 1735.

John Calver is Dead

Test Nathl. Hodgman

James McCaskey

John McCaskey

At a Court held for Stafford County the 10th day of May 1736
The within Last Will & Testament of John Calver Dead was presented into Court by Alexander Scott J^r the Executor thereunto named was made Oath thereunto according to Law & the same being proved by testimony of Nathaniel Hodgman & John McCaskey two of the witnesses thereto the said is admitted to Record & on motion of the said J^r & the having performed what is usual in such Cases Certificate is granted him for obtaining an Probate thereof in due form.

Test

James McCaskey

John McCaskey

Stafford County Wills 1729-1748

www.virginiapioneers.net