

August the 11th Day 1761

I Sarah Whitcotton being weak & sick in body & imperfect soured memory, do affirm this my last will & Testament

In the name of God Amen I recommend my soul to the almighty which gave it me, & my body to be buried in a decent manner, & as for what little I part the almighty has been pleased to bestow upon me, I give & bequeath in manner & form following. I Give & bequeath to my loving son Mealey, two Negroes namely, Peter & Sam. & what so ever the household stuff & stock to be equally divided between him, & his sister Nanny, But if the said Mealey wh. so ever should die without lawfully begotten, then his said Estate shall fall to his sister Ann Whitcotton. I Give & bequeath to loving Daughter Ann Whitcotton. One Negro to w^{ch} namely Drigg & a white girl named Margaret Whitcotton until she shall arrive to the age of Eighteen years, the other half of the Household stuff & stock to be equally divided as above said. And if the said Ann Whitcotton should die, without law fully begotten, then her said Estate shall fall to Mealey wh. so ever. I Give & bequeath to my friend John L. his One Hottor, bigg with calf & Lth Wth horse & my hand this 11th Day of August 1761. Sarah Whitcotton

Test. Jos: Wangle. Nanny ^{her} friend At about hold for Stafford County the 11th Day of May 1762 manor. As for what little I had the children might have been pleased to bestow upon me, I give & bequeath to my loving son John following. I give & bequeath to my loving son Mealey, two Negroes Nanny, Peter & Sam. & a horse Coll. and the household stuff & stock to be equally divided between him, & his sister Nanny. But if the said Mealey who is older should die without lawfully begotten, then his said estate shall fall to his sister Ann Whitcomb. I give & bequeath to loving Daughter Ann Whitcomb. One Negro woman named Jagg & a white girl named Margaret Whitcomb until she shall arrive to the age of Eighteen years & the other half of the Household stuff & stock to be equally divided as above in such case. And if the said Ann Whitcomb should die, without law lawfully begotten, then her said estate shall fall to Mealey who is older. I give & bequeath to my grand son John Green One Heifer, bigger with Calf. GIVEN under my hand this 11th Day of August 1761. Sarah Whitcomb

Test. Jos. Waugh. Nanny ^{her} friend At about held for Stafford County
the 11th Day of May 1762
This will was presented into Court by Mealey Whitcomb who made oath thereunto according to Law. & the same being proved by the Oath of the witnesses thereto, is admitted to record. And there being no Ex^r named in the will. Administration with the Said will annexed is granted the said Mooley his having complied with what the Law in such cases doth provided direct Test

Henry Tyler Esq

In the name of GOD I John Smith planter of St Sandy Parish in Stafford County being sick & weak but of sound Memory praised be GOD do make this my last will by Testament as follows. In primis I give to my Daughter Mary Smith, One Shilling. Item I give to my son William Smith, One Shilling. Item I give to my Daughter Anna Smith, One Shilling Current. Item I give & bequeath to Katherine Smith my Daughter, One third part of all my goods, Chattels & other Effects pertaining to me, and the other two parts to be Equally divided between John Smith my son & Charles Smith my Daughter, Mildred Smith. Now of my Children, I appoint sole Executor, to pay to each the share of said, Katherine Smith & John Smith when they shall be of age, One third part of all goods & Effects pertaining to me, to be paid to them, after my debts are paid & funeral charges are paid in the year of our Lord 1761.

Signed & sealed
in presence of us

John R. Smith

Cohly, Drilling, Helen S. Moody