

Stafford County Virginia Land Laid Off

The land upon which the town of Marlborough in Stafford County was laid off belonged to Captain Malachi Peale, with reversion to Giles Brent. The first feoffees were John Withers and Mathew Thompson, who conveyed twenty-three lots to different purchasers.

Source: Case and Petition of John Mercer, Ludwell, Papers, Virginia Historical Society Mss. Collection.