Whereas it is found by this Court very unreasonable that the Oxyhant Court should be held at this very hot time of year, and that the appointing the same in a more moderate time of the year cannot be any detriment to any person whatsoever but of great advantage both private & public in the preservation of their healths It is therefore by this Court ordered that the former Order appointing the Oxyhant Court on this day be revoked & made void, and that for the future the said Court be held on the first day of April Annually and for all persons give their attendance accordingly on that day.
